Taylor-Edmondson

A very quiet marriage was solemnized at the Christian church here last Saturday morning at 6 o'clock when Miss Pattie Christine Edmondson wedded Mr. Herbert Tillman Taylor, of Roanoke Rapids, Rev. F. W. Wiegmann, pastor of the bride, officiating.

Miss Rachel Rogerson, of Robersonville, rendered an attractive musical program, among the numbers being "Indian Love Call" and "Meditation" by Morrison. Miss Josephine Sykes, of Bayboro, sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "I Love You Truly" while awaiting the coming of the bride. To the strains of "Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus" the party entered unattended and advanced to the altar where the vows were given. During the ceremony, the pianist played "To A Wild Rose," using Mendelssohn's Wedding March at the recessional. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor immediately entered their automobile and left for a three weeks trip to Myrtle Beach and other places of interest. After August 8 they will be at home here.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Edmondson, of this place, where she attended school and after graduation took a special course in teaching at East Carolina Teachers College. For two years she has taught in the Roanoke Rapids schools. She wore a fashionable going-away suit of rose beige with hat, gloves, and shoes to match.

Mr. Taylor is the son of Mrs. Mary E. Taylor, of Roanoke Rapids and is a salesman for the S. E. Masengill Pharmaceutical House, Bristol, Tenn. He is a registered druggist and a young man of splendid character and attainments.

Unintentional Suicide

Many people are slowly poisoning themselves just as surely as if they drank iodine every morning for breakfast. They are daily absorbing the toxins, or poisons, created by accumulated waste matter in their congested digestive systems. Sooner or later disease will conquer their weakened bodies.

If you have dizzy spells, headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, insomnia, no appetite, bilious attacks or pains in the back and limbs, you are probably suffering from self poisoning caused by constipation. The surest and pleasantest relief for this condition is Herbin, the vegetable cathartic which acts in the natural way. Get a bottle today from Clark's Drug Store.

We Advertised Values--- Matchless Values--- And Those Values Advertised Us

In spite of the howling of hard times, old bills and new bills were spent. Our business for the first two days of the sale doubled our expectations. Evidently more people realized that what Margolis Brothers advertise they usually deliver the goods.

Our sale will continue until the end of July. With more values and greater savings, we thank you.

N. B.—Nothing being reserved. Every reasonable item is on sale at greatly reduced prices.
