THERE ARE TWO KINDS OF WIDOWS
Widows With Homes
 AND
Homeless Widows
 Could there be a stronger argument for life insurance than bare statistical facts that three million widows in our country are working for a living, earning their daily bread by the sweat of their brow? That many millions of children are being deprived of life's advantages, toiling, not from choice but through necessity, doomed to spend their lives in fighting the hardest phases of life's battle.
 These are the widows and orphans of Husbands who said next week will be time enough to take out insurance.
