Program of Presbyterian Service For Next Sunday

Church School 9:45 A. M. Departmental Classes. Worship Service and Sermon: "Imitation and Influence."

The doors of this church are always wide open to all who feel the need of a living Savior. Having built on things material only to see them crumble beneath your feet, in your reconstruction, why not build upon the one sure foundation? Jesus Christ. No matter who you are or what you are—you are always welcome in this House of God.

Leggett's Farm

Sunday School 3:00 P. M. Mrs. Keel Sup't. Preaching: Immediately after Sunday School. You are invited to come and enjoy these services.

Bear Grass

The usual Presbyterian service will be held in the school house auditorium at Bear Grass at 7 P. M. Come and hear the children sing—come and sing yourself.

Local Baptists Announce Program of Services

Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock hour, the pastor has invited all those who have joined the Memorial Baptist Church within the last five years to be present, for the entire service will be built around those who have come into the church in that time. They are to be the special guests at this service.

The other services of the church organization will all meet at their usual and customary time.

The pastor of the church is just home from the sessions of the one hundredth anniversary of the State Baptist Convention of North Carolina Baptists, and reports great sessions at Raleigh and at Wake Forest where the several meetings were held.

The next convention goes to Winston-Salem.

Rev. D. A. Petty To Preach At Holly Springs Sunday

Rev. D. A. Petty will preach his last sermon before Conference, at Holly Springs Church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

Because the stockholders in the Mill Springs Potato Curing House of Polk County needed all the space in the 4200-bushel house, non stockholders say they will build another house in the community next season.

JAMESVILLE SCHOOL NEWS

Club Meeting

The Woman's Club of the Poplar Chapel Community met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. S. S. Davis. Miss Sleeper helped the ladies make new hats or remodel their old ones. There were six members present.

Principal Talks In Chapel

Mr. A. L. Pollock, the Principal of Jamesville High School, made a splendid talk to the school children Monday November 3. Mr. Pollock gave figures concerning cheating in North Carolina State College, which he gained from state papers. These figures are as follows: 21 per cent of the Freshmen cheat; 58 per cent of sophomores; 61 per cent of juniors and 65 per cent of seniors. We stated that students from the country have the lowest record, the village next, the small town and then the city.

After hearing this talk the students of the school resolved to establish a better honor record than they had ever had before.

Hallowe'en Party

A Hallowe'en supper as given to raise funds with which to make the last payment on the piano and paying for some library books. Supper was served, beginning at 7:00 and continuing until 9:00. There was a fishing pond for the small children who found much pleasure in fishing to see what they could catch. The older boys and girls found much fun in having their fortunes told by Mr. Cecil Taylor. The rest of the teachers assisted in serving supper. After 9:00 o'clock the people were called to the auditorium to enjoy a free program given by the teachers and students of the school. The group of witches had a dancing contest, the second group won, the winners being as follows: Jack Martin, Margaret Ange, and Melba Martin. The prize was a large box of candy.

BACKACHE SPELLS

This Lady's Husband Urged Her To Take Cardul.—Seen Benefited.

Troy, Ala.—"Cardul has done me good, and it has done my 16-year-old daughter so much good," says Mrs. J. W. J. Wright, of this place, "that I felt I wanted other women to know the facts about it, so I wrote to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., telling them about my experience with this medicine, Cardul."

"I have used it at intervals for sixteen years, when I suffered from weakness, and it always helped me. Mostly I was afflicted with bad spells of backache. At times I felt as if my back would break. I would drag one foot after the other, in a helpless sort of way, and once I got down in bed. My husband urged me to take Cardul, and I soon found what a fine medicine it really was."

"When my second child was little, I was in very bad health. I did not pick up as I should have. I was weak and sickly. I do not believe that I would have come through, but for Cardul."

Thousands of other women have written to tell how Cardul had helped them to health.

Cardul is a purely vegetable remedy and contains nothing harmful or injurious. It may be safely taken by a delicate young girl as well as by a feeble old lady.
