COBURN-HARRISON

On Thursday at high noon the marriage of Miss Martha Irene Harrison and Mr. Robert L. Coburn took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. F. Harrison, on Haughton Street. Rev. F. W. Weigman, pastor of the Christian Church, officiated. Only the families and a few friends of the participating parties were present at the wedding, which was a very pretty and impressive one.

In the front parlor of the home an improvised altar was placed, before which the vows were taken. It was covered with ivy and smilax intermingled with freezias. On each side of the altar were tall standards upon which tapers were placed, and these shed a soft radiance over the background of palms and ferns which completed the decorations in that room. In the reception hall roses and freezias were used with ivy and southern smilax.

Mrs. W. C. Manning, Jr., rendered a musical program prior to the entrance of the wedding party, which came in from the library.

Misses Mildred Darden, of Kenly, and Velma Harrison, a cousin of the bride, as bridesmaids, were the first to enter. Miss Darden wore a poppy-colored chiffon gown and carried snapdragons and yellow sweet peas. Miss Harrison's gown was a blue chiffon, and she carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas and snapdragons.

Mrs. Ralph Parker, of Dunn, a sister of the bride, was dame of honor. She wore a green chiffon gown and carried an arm-bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

The maid of honor, Miss Esther Harrison, was gowned in aquamarine blue chiffon and carried roses and sweet peas.

The bride entered with her uncle, Mr. Lovett Biggs Harrison and wore a becoming cutaway suit of tan with sun tan accessories. She carried a corsage of calla lilies. The groom was accompanied by his brother, Mr. Hubert Coburn.

Immediately after the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served the wedding party and invited guests, at the home of Mrs. Harrison. The bride and groom then left for a wedding trip to New York and other northern cities.

The bride is one of Williamston's finest young women. She is identified with all social, civic, and church activities of the town, and possesses a very charming and winsome personality. She was educated at the Williamston High School and Atlantic Christian College. She is the daughter of Mrs. T. F. Harrison and the late T. F. Harrison.

Mr. Coburn is one of the town's leading attorneys and is at present mayor of the town. He attended the University of North Carolina and began practicing law here in 1921. He is the son of the late W. T. Coburn and wife, of Dardens.

Those attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Johnson, of Ayden; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stillman, of Plymouth; Mr. Lonnie Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Reed, and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. W. E. Moore and Mrs. Earl Murrell, of Southern Pines; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Coburn, of Dardens; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Coburn, of Newport News, Va.; Miss Mildred Darden, of Kenly; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker, of Dunn; Miss Josephine Harrison, of E. C. T. C., Greenville.

Town of Oak City, N. C. and showing this and the Casper Brothers property, there being situate upon the property covered by lots 7 to 13 inclusive, two stores and one warehouse, which, together with said lots is hereby conveyed, reserving and excepting from the operation of this deed a lot 25 feet by 50 feet which lot was conveyed by the late Jno. L. Hines and being the same lot upon which the store of Casper Brothers now stands.

Black-Draught Praised By Illinois Woman Who Tells of Its Many Uses in Her Home.

Cairo, Ill.—"I have used Black-Draught in my home for fifteen years, and it is a splendid medicine," writes Mrs. Bernice Brack, of 230 "Thirty-second" Street, this city. "Sometimes I am subject to colds and constipation, and I find it to be the finest thing for this. "My mother used Theodor's Black-Draught in her home for years, and it was there that I began taking it. She thought it was so good that she had me to use it, and I have never found any medicine that would take its place satisfactorily. "I find Black-Draught fine for sour stomach and gas. A few doses taken for several nights rid the system of poison due to constipation and it makes me feel like a new person. "I try to keep Black-Draught all ways on hand, and I treat all small illness with it. I can certainly recommend it for I have found it very good and dependable." In thousands of families, this medicine has a corner all its own on the medicine shelf. Theodor's Black-Draught contains no chemicals. Composed of pure botanical roots and herbs. Get the genuine Theodor's Black-Draught which has been in use nearly 100 years.
