Miss Stallings Hostess To Beaux Arts Club

Jamesville, May 18.—On Thursday evening Miss Edith Stallings delightfully entertained the members of the Beaux Arts Club with a theatre party at Watts Theatre in Williamston. After the theatre, the hostess invited the guests to a soda shop, where three tables were reserved for bridge. After playing a short while the hostess served a salad course, coffee, and pie a la mode. Those attending were Misses' Camille Flemming, Fannie L. Martin, Mildred Hedrick, Ruth Modlin, Hilda Modlin, Ella Moore Davenport, Louise, Paxton, and Pauline Askew, and Mrs. C. Davenport.

MEIGS-PERRY

The article below, announcing the engagement of Miss Pauline Meigs, of Centreville, Alabama, to Rev. Perlie L. Perry, a native of this town, was received with much interest here this week. Rev. Mr. Perry, the son of Mrs. Louisa Perry and husband, the late Noah Perry, is well known here. He was graduated from the local high school and completed his education in the Louisville Seminary. During the past several years he has been pastor of the Centreville Presbyterian church.

The clipping, taken from The Centreville Press, follows:

"The Birmingham News of Sunday, May 3, carried the following announcement: "Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Meigs, of Centreville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline, to Rev. P. L. Perry, of Centreville, the wedding to be an event of June."

"The above announcement is of much interest to the people of Bibb County and Centreville on account of the prominence of the contracting parties.

"Miss Meigs was reared in Centreville, moving here with her parents from Selma when only a little girl. She is a graduate of B.-C. H. S., and also attended Alabama College, and for the past two years has been teaching school, and has taught this year in the Centreville Consolidated School. She is also a talented musician, organist of Methodist Church, Centreville.

"Mr. Perry is pastor of Centreville Presbyterian church—and is a native of North Carolina, and during the two years that he has been pastor here, has made friends among all denominations.

"They are receiving best wishes and congratulations of friends."

Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

Now! Please!—Actually put your finger on your Adam's Apple. Touch it—your Adam's Apple—Do you know you are actually touching your larynx? This is your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple, you are considering your throat—your vocal chords. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants—Reach for a LUCKY instead—Remember, LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette in America that through its exclusive "TOASTING" process expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE, and so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."
