Reception for Mrs. Frank
Plymouth, May 25.—A lovely social affair was the bridge party given last Friday evening by Mrs. E. R. Jackson, complimenting her daughter, Mrs. Jack Frank, whose wedding was announced a few days ago. The reception hall, in which the receiving line stood, was filled with spring flowers, consisting of a mantle banked with pink roses and snapdragon with asparagus fern forming the immediate background for the line. As the guests arrived, they were greeted by Mrs. Frank, the guest of honor, and her mother, Mrs. Jackson; receiving with them were Mesdames Claudius McGowan and Bob Everette, and Miss Gertrude Morton. The guests were met at the stairs and ushered into the boudoir to remove their wraps by Mrs. J. L. Hayes. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mesdames L. W. Gurkin, H. H. Alexander, and R. E. Dunning. Punch was served from the back hall, which was attractive with pink roses and ferns. The living and dining rooms were enhanced with myriads of pink snapdragons, roses, and asparagus ferns, a color motif of pink and green being effectively carried out in a minute degree in both decoration and refreshments. As favors, upon each plate was placed a dainty ruffled-mint pot, suspended from a tripod of slender poles. After several interesting progressions, scores were added; Miss Eliza Hampton was awarded a pink crystal ice tub for high score, while Miss Gertrude Norton received a dainty costume necklace for second high score. The honoree was presented a box of imported powder.

At the conclusion of the game, the hostess, assisted by Mesdames M. W. Norman, H. H. Alexander, J. L. Hayes and Claudius McGowan, served a delightful ice course, consisting of green and pink ice cream with block cake covered with whipped cream and strawberries, mints, salted nuts, and marshmallows.

Williams Chapel Home Club in Regular Meeting

Mrs. Joseph Early and Mrs. Augustus Perry were hostesses Thursday, May 21st, to a very enjoyable meeting of the Williams Chapel club. Responding to roll call, the club women reported what they had done in gardening and the clothing project since the last meeting.

During the business session, the news leader called on different club members to report on a number of meetings that a limited number of them had recently attended.

Miss Christine Piland and Mrs. Julian Mizelle gave interesting accounts of the district federation meeting at Greenville. As no member of the club went, Miss Sleeper gave a very interesting account of the trip to Currituck.

Mrs. Don Hyman, Miss Margaret Everett, and Miss Sleeper reported on the review of homes, the health pagant, and the cotton style show of Halifax County recently held at Tillery, Halifax, and Roanoke Rapids.

This meeting was attended by 50 Martin County women, principally from the lower end of the county.

The meeting was here turned over to Miss Sleeper, who gave a talk on children's clothing and the necessary requirements for health, beauty, and economy. This talk was accompanied by an exhibit of infant's clothing, the designs of which were sponsored by the government.

The meeting over, a brief social hour and music on the piano, by Miss Christine Piland, were much enjoyed.
