A BATHING AUTHORITY WRITES
AN ADVERTISEMENT FOR ELECTRIC
WATER HEATERS

No folks, I don't know a thing about "consumer demand" (except the kind I make when I'm hungry); or "attention value" (except a nice long yell); and "market analysis" is just a great big gurgle to me—so as an advertising man, I'd probably make a good tap-dancer.

But they say the best advertisement is a satisfied customer—and that's me. Yes, sir—I sure do like having water for my bath whenever I want it—not too hot and not too cold—and I like the pretty smile on my mother's face when she turns the faucet and there's plenty of hot water for dish-washing, for cleaning, or bathing.

Dad's sales resistance was simply annihilated (shem!) when he learned the down payment was only $10, that the rest could be paid on easy monthly terms, and that there was an allowance for our old heater.

Believe me—my dad's one right guy—he sure knows what and when to buy! Say, feller—what is this—a poem or an ad? Well, it's the truth, anyway!

BEWARE

Smooth-worn tires skid on winter roads

Don't wait for accidents—get new rubber on every wheel now. New tires mean safety—you need them more right now than at any time in the year. It's a fact, good tires show almost no wear in cold wet weather—they'll still be "new" next spring.
