

NEGROES GIVE AID TO STATE'S FARM PROGRAM

Negro farmers in North Carolina adopted the live-at-home program this year and gave whole-hearted support to the agricultural extension service in all of its plans.

I have been impressed with the efforts made by our colored farmers to follow the extension recommendations and to grow the food and feed supplies needed.

Soybean growing for hay increased very perceptibly this season, he says, and some growers report hay yields of two tons an acre and above.

CIRCUS TO SHOW HERE THIS WEEK

Barnett Bros. Circus and Trained Animal Show Coming

The time-honored, yet magical, phrase, "Are you going to the circus?" is the query most frequently heard these days upon every hand in Williamston, and for miles out in the surrounding country.

The small boy and girl are correspondingly happy, and it goes without saying that their elders have the day marked on their calendar, too.

The hippodrome track is a veritable maze of rings, ropes, and apparatus upon which dauntless queens and kings of the air twice daily defy death in entertaining the thousands of patrons.

Act follows act in rapid succession and with such precision and skill as only can be found with Barnett Bros. Circus.

LOGIC DOES NOT ALWAYS WORK AS TO FARM CROPS

Old Law of Supply and Demand Is An Out and Out Falsehood Now

It has been insistently argued that if production of tobacco and cotton were decreased, price per pound for the product would surely increase.

A News and Observer editorial recently emphasized this argument, and pleaded for action on the part of the governor for acreage control legislation at a special session of the general assembly.

Curtis Says He Will Run For Vice Presidency Again

Washington, Nov. 30.—Vice President Curtis is going to stick by the Republican national ticket—if the party wants to renominate him, and there is every indication that it does.

In a brief statement, Mr. Curtis today announced he would not run for his old place in the senate from Kansas and would accept the vice presidential nomination if it is tendered to him.

There was no mention of President Hoover in the long awaited announcement, but the Hoover forces saw favorable omens in the decision of the veteran Republican leader to cast his lot with the national ticket in 1932.

Smiling and joking with newspapermen, Curtis declined to add to his prepared statement or to say whether he had discussed it with Mr. Hoover.
