Bridge Party
 Greensboro, Feb. 19.—Miss Virginia Taylor entertained at a small bridge party last evening at her home on McGee Street to honor her young sister, Miss Edythe Taylor, of Williamston, a freshman at North Carolina College.

All the guests were classmates of the honoree and made up two tables. Tallies were decorated with scenes showing George Washington and his cherry tree, this being indicative of the patriotic mood of the party. All appointments carried out the bicentennial idea very cleverly.

Ices, with George Washington accessories, were served by the hostess and another sister, Miss Vivian Taylor. High score award, a bicentennial necklace in red, white and blue, was won by Miss Sara White. The consolation, a George Washington plaque, fell to Miss Fay Tadlock. Miss Taylor's remembrance was lingerie.

Guests were Misses Edythe Taylor, Sara White, Neva Liverman, Jo Hephren, Mary Elizabeth Davidson, Fay Tadlock, Ruth Norton, Edith Peale and Virginia Cahoon.

At The Change
 A Critical Time in Every Woman's Life.
 "During a critical time in my life I took Cardui for several months. I had hot flashes. I would suddenly get dizzy and seem blind. I would get faint and have no strength. My nerves were on edge. I would not sleep at night. Cardui did wonders for me. I recommend it to all women who are passing through the critical period of change. I have found it a fine medicine."—Mrs. Estie Murphy, Poplar Bluff, Mo.
 Cardui is a purely vegetable medicine and contains no dangerous drugs.

THAT X-TRA SOMETHING—

Ingredient X

Ingredient X! The greatest feeding discovery since vitamins. It gives added life and growth to chicks—better feathering—extra stretch in frames and added ounces. It is found only in the Checkerboard bag—in Purina Startena and Purina Growena.

Ingredient X was discovered in the research department of Purina Mills. It is the result of long years of work. Out of scores of different feeding experiments, the testing on thousands of chicks, came Ingredient X—the synchronizing of proteins; the careful nicking together the right protein of ingredients in Startena and Growena. You can not see it in the feed—but you can see its results in chicks.

Feed your chicks Startena, the feed that contains Ingredient X. You'll raise more and bigger chicks. Remember—Ingredient X can be had only in the Checkerboard bag. Come see us.
