TWO REVIVALS IN PROGRESS THIS WEEK IN COUNTY

Methodist Meeting Will Continue Through Next Sunday Evening

Religious activities in the community are becoming more pronounced almost daily, with two revivals now in progress in the town, one out at Bear Grass and other services having recently been concluded at the Episcopal and Christian churches here. Next week, another one is scheduled at the Christian church in Robersonville, and it is not known just how many more are being planned.

The revival at the local Christian church was brought to a very successful close last Sunday evening. Cooperation was extended by the several churches and a large number was present for the last service of the series. Twenty-five new members were accepted into the church during the week, many of that number affiliating with the body during the afternoon services.

Last night the Methodists started what promises to be a very successful meeting when Rev. T. W. Lee, a former pastor who is now located in Windsor, occupied the pulpit. Miss Carolyn Hosford, of Springfield, Mass., is leading the song services and ably assisting the pastor, Rev. C. T. Rogers. Successful services are held by her twice daily, each morning with the women and each afternoon with the children.

Rev. C. H. Dickey, pastor of the local Baptist church, will deliver the second sermon in the series planned at the Methodist church this week. During the remainder of the period, other local and visiting ministers will preach, it has been announced by the pastor.

The public is invited to attend each of the services, and the children are particularly urged to take part in the afternoon meetings.

Doctors to Examine Twelve Contestants from All Parts of County

A health contest among the several 4-H clubs in the county will be held in Williamston Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Some weeks ago, all 4-H clubs selected the health champion in their clubs. Dr. J. H. Saunders and Dr. P. B. Cone have kindly consented to examine these health champions and select the county health champion from Martin.

The following contestants will be examined Friday: F. P. Raynor, representing the boys' club of Everett; Arline Wynne, from Everett; Elsie Lee Bullock from Parme; Naomi Harrell, of Oak City; Doris Thomas, of Robersonville; Katherine Griffin, of Farm Life; Dether Daniels, of Williamston; Margaret Peele, of Hamilton; Eula Green, of Williamston; Janet Harrison, of Jamesville; Mavrine Davis, of Jamesville; and Mattie Lou Roberson, of Bear Grass.

The contestants will each be scored on the basis of 100 points; a total of 20 given for general condition, 15 for posture, 20 for condition of body, lungs, heart, etc., 20 for condition of eyes, ears, and throat, teeth, etc. Each contestant will receive a score card showing the defects and good points.

SCHOOL FINALS AT FARM LIFE

M. O. Fletcher Will Deliver Commencement Address There Friday Night

The Farm Life school will close its first eight-months term Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock, when Dr. M. O. Fletcher, of Washington, delivers the commencement address. Attendance and reading certificates will be delivered at that time as an added feature of the entertainment for the evening. Dr. Fletcher is well known in this section, and it is believed a large hearing will be accorded him.

This evening the primary grades, under the direction of Misses Roberson and Harrell, are staging an operetta there.

A seventh grade program has been planned for tomorrow evening (Wednesday) at 8 o'clock, when 16 certificates will be awarded.

Fountain to End Campaign In Washington Tomorrow

Richard T. Fountain, candidate for the governorship nomination, will conclude his campaign in Washington tomorrow night when he speaks in the courthouse there at 8 o'clock, it was announced yesterday. A cordial invitation has been extended Martin County people to hear him.

2 NEROES CUT IN AFFRAY SUNDAY

Quarrel Breaks Up Prayer Meeting at Old Corey's School In Griffins

Some of the good old colored brethren of the county had an off-day last Sunday when they assembled for worship. The first of the disturbances was reported in Oak City, where Elbert Green cut and slashed Eli Bryant about the head. Several of the negro's veins were severed in the neck, and it is believed he would have bled to death if it had not been for Dr. E. E. Pittman, who treated him immediately after the affray.

Bryant and Green were attending a church service at the time, but the cause of the affray could not be learned here. Green escaped.

Dawse Corey, negro farmer of Griffins Township, was dangerously stabbed in the back early last Sunday evening by Claude Peel, also colored, when they started to the old Corey schoolhouse to attend prayer meeting. According to reports received here, Corey was bleeding internally and it could not be determined just how badly he was hurt. Sherman Peel, father of Claude, is said to have entered the fight and crowned Corey over the head with a brick, the ruckus breaking up the prayer meeting before it was hardly started.

Peel is said to have carried a quantity of liquor with him to the little negro schoolhouse, and the trouble started when Corey asked him for a drink.

Peel was placed under arrest yesterday and required to give bond in the sum of $100, the trial pending the outcome of Corey's wound.

ARREST MEN FOR STEALING CHICKS

Early Mosley, Mark Forrest and Lester Council Face Charges

Lester Council, Earl Mosley and Mark Forrest, young white men of Poplar Point Township, were arrested there last night by Sheriff C. B. Roebuck and jailed here to face a chicken stealing charge in Recorder Bailey's court today.

The boys are alleged to have raided the coop of W. L. Lee, farmer on the Taylor farm, near Spring Green, last Friday night. Lee, investigating the case, found his ten missing hens and identified them. The boys had sold them to Mr. Will Holliday, poultryman, who remembered the transaction and gave the names of the boys to officers.

Mrs. George Marshall To Address Hamilton Meeting

Mrs. George Marshall, a former resident of Williamston, will address the district meeting of the Woman Auxiliary of the Episcopal church at Hamilton tomorrow morning, giving her experiences of life in Japan, at which time she will wear the Japanese costume. Mrs. Marshall is visiting her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Marshall, at Belhaven, while on a short furlough from Tokyo, Japan, where she has lived for the past two years.

TWO BARRELS OF FLOUR ARE GIVEN AWAY SATURDAY

Applicants Urged To Get Recommendations from Representatives

Two barrels of Red Cross Flour were distributed to 25 families in this section last Saturday afternoon between 3 and 5 o'clock by Red Cross and welfare workers. Several applications were held up pending investigations believed necessary by those in charge of the distribution.

Noah Hoggard, local colored man, was the first to apply for and receive one of the 24-pound bags of the free flour. There were applicants presenting their claims from as far as 10 or 12 miles away.

Hunger might have prompted all the requests for the free goods, but some of the applicants apparently maintained the attitude that they were entitled to a bag of flour, regardless of what the welfare agents thought about it. Their appreciation, if any, was seldom mentioned.

Once each week, between 2 and 5 o'clock on Saturdays, two representatives will distribute flour to the needy. Those finding it absolutely necessary to ask aid will find it to their advantage to place their cases before the respective township representatives and procure a slip substantiating the claims.

Mrs. A. R. Dunning, representing the local chapter of the American Red Cross, and James C. Manning, of the county welfare department, handled the work last week. Two more will be in charge of the distribution next Saturday.

As far as it could be learned, no flour was bartered for gasoline by those procuring a helping last Saturday.

GIRL MAKING FINE RECORD

Has Attended School for 8 Years With Absence Or Tardy

Another unusual and enviable attendance record upon Martin County schools was reported in Bear Grass recently when Mary Elizabeth Keel completed her eighth year in the schools there without ever being absent or tardy.

In addition to her attendance record upon school, she is out to set another mark in attendance upon religious meetings. For three years she has attended church regularly every Sunday and hasn't been absent in Sunday school since it was organized in Bear Grass a year ago.

Keel is the daughter of Rube Keel, but since the death of her mother eleven years ago she has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Kneezier Harrison, near Bear Grass.

Her attendance record is the best reported in the county, Ben Manning, local boy, having complete the seventh grade with no absences or tardies chalked against him.

BOB REYNOLDS TO SPEAK HERE

Is Fourth of U. S. Senate Candidates To Address Voters of County

Robert R. Reynolds, of Asheville, one of the five Democrats seeking the United States Senate nomination, will speak in the courthouse here next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, it was announced here yesterday morning. Although Mr. Reynolds is running on a "damp" platform, all the dries are invited to hear him.

Three other candidates for the nomination, Messrs. Cameron Morrison, Tam C. Bowie, and Frank Grist, have already spoken to the voters of the county, and Mr. Reynolds will close the campaign in this section next Tuesday evening. Arthur Simmons, Burlington man, candidate for the long term, has made no active campaign in this section.

Insurance Company Pays Out Large Sums in State

Payments made to North Carolina policyholders and their beneficiaries by the New York Life Insurance Company in 1931 and investments of the company in the State, with a small part of this coming to Martin County during the year amounted to $2,343,616 in excess of the total premiums collected, it was learned here today.

During 1931 the New York Life collected $2,478,479 in premiums in North Carolina. It paid to resident policyholders and their beneficiaries in death losses, maturing endowments, and dividends $2,649,989 and invested in State in mortgage loans or bonds and loaned to policyholders $2,172,106.

Five Contests in Primary on June 4 for Offices in County

STATE BALLOTS FOR USE JUNE 4 HAVE ARRIVED

State Ballot Might Prove A Bit Confusing for Some Voters This Year

More than 7,000 State Democratic primary ballots, 500 Republican State primary ballots, and 500 absentee certificates were received here yesterday for distribution to the 12 county precincts, where around 2,500 of them are expected to be used June 4.

These ballots, along with approximately 4,500 county ballots, will be distributed to the election authorities the early part of next week preparatory to the primary to be held Saturday, June 4.

All the names are in and the eventful day is fast approaching.

The State ballot might prove a bit confusing in that the names of four United States Senate aspirants appear on the Democratic ballots twice. When Senator Overman died, Governor Gardner appointed Cameron Morrison to service in the august body, but the appointment was made subject to the action of the people in the next following general election. In other words, Messrs. Cameron Morrison, Robert R. Reynolds, Tam C. Bowie, and Frank D. Grist are in the race to complete the term expiring March 3, 1933, and the same men are also in the race to serve the full term beginning March 4, 1933, and expiring March 3, 1939. Arthur Simmons, of Burlington, is a candidate for the Senate to serve during the term ending March 3, 1939, but he is not a candidate for the short term, expiring next March 3. If Grist should poll a majority for the short term he would succeed Morrison next December 5, and then if Morrison polled a majority for the six-year term, he would go back into office to succeed Grist just 3 months later.

LEIGON POST IN MEET MONDAY

Will Sponsor Three Young Boys' Baseball Teams In This County

With 23 of the 37 members present, the John Walton Hassell Post, American Legion, held a very successful meeting in the courthouse here last night. The post has been organized a little over five weeks, and its membership has averaged more than one new member each day during the period, two new members, Eugene Price, of Williamston, and P. M. Holliday, of Jamesville, joining last night.

Quarters for housing the post were rented last night, the legionnaires will soon move into the Leggett building over the pool room.

The next meeting will be held in Robersonville June 6, it was announced.

The post made definite plans at the meeting last night to sponsor three young boys' baseball teams in various sections of the county, at Jamesville, Williamston, and Robersonville. From these three teams, after they have competed with each other, the best material will be selected to represent the John W. Hassell Post and play other post teams. No boy over 17 is eligible to participate.

Attendance on the post meetings is holding up well, the membership is increasing with every meeting, and it is expected to do a constructive work in this county in forwarding the objectives of the American Legion.

Meeting in regular session at the home of Mrs. A. B. Rogerson in Bear Grass, members of the home demonstration club there discussed "fine laundering" and the various kinds of bluing and soaps best suited for the work. The home agent, Miss Lora E. Steeper, showed several kinds of stain removers and the materials they could be used on most effectively. Reno Harris, reporter.

Girls' Council 4-H Clubs to Meet Friday Afternoon

The girls' council of 4-H clubs will hold its second meeting of the year in the county office of the home demonstration agent Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. All clubs should be represented. It will be necessary to elect several more officers and committees. Instructions in crocheting was requested by the girls at the first meeting, and each girl has been asked to bring her crocheting hook in preparation for this instruction, Miss Steeper said.

MULE-MOBILE

Mount Olive.—Farmers in this section have found a way to beat old man depression. It is the "mule-mobile"—half mule, half automobile. By substituting the mule for the motor and using the rear end and wheels of the old family Lizzie, the farmers have eliminated the cost of gas and oil and substituted hay and water. Shafts are added to the old car. Most of the vehicles are of the cart type. Occasionally one sees a 4-wheel touring mule-mobile—cushions, soft upholstery and everything—bringing the family to town.

SIX CANDIDATES FOR 5 PLACES ON COUNTY BOARD

All Members of Present Board and H. C. Green Are in Race

There has been no great talk about politics in this county so far, but with five county contests, one or two township contests and Lord only knows how many State contests there is going to be more interest in voting a week from next Saturday than many people believe there will be.

All the boys managed to scare up from $1 to $5 to get their names on Mr. Sylvester Peel's books, and the elections board chairman is now making arrangements to put them on the spot in the county's twelve precincts for the people to shoot at or support.

The fifth race was created late last Friday afternoon when Mr. Henry Everett filed his candidacy to succeed himself on the county board of commissioners. There are six in the race for a place on the board, and there is room for only five. Mr. Everett, when questioned some time ago, said he would not seek renomination, but he reconsidered and said he would file if no one else did from his section of the county. Mr. Don Matthews was said to have considered announcing for the office, but he failed to file, and, according to Mr. Peel, we have the following men—all good ones—to choose five from for county commissioners: T. C. Griffins, of Griffins; Van G. Taylor, of Cross Roads; Joshua L. Coltrain, of Williams; John E. Pope, of Williamston; H. C. Green, of Bear Grass, and H. S. Everett, of Robersonville.

The three-cornered race for the recorder's court judgeship is probably the spotlight in county politics, Messrs. Herbert O. Peel, C. Ben Riddick and Lewis Peal seeking the job. The Messrs. Peel are not related.

A third county contest centers around the register of deeds office, with Messrs. J. Sam Getsinger and Lucian Harrison in the race.

Two men, W. Hubert Coburn and Jos. W. Bailey are seeking the county solicitorship.

A contest centers around the board of education, with J. Eason Lilley, Eli Hoyt Ange, John W. Eubanks, and Joe Martin out for places on the board. There are only three vacancies to be filled on the board this year.

And then there is a district senatorial contest, with A. D. MacLean, of Beaufort County; Carl L. Bailey, of Washington County; and A. Corey, of this county, in the race for the two places.

There are only two township contests, H. O. Daniel and B. B. Biggs seeking the office of constable in Cross Roads Township and Clarence Sexton and Joseph H. Holliday out for constable in Jamesville Township.

Mr. Plenny Peel is out for justice of the peace in Griffins Township, but as there is no opposition to his candidacy he will be declared the party nominee.

Having no opposition, the following will be declared the party nominees for the respective offices sought by them: C. B. Roebuck, for sheriff; S. Rome Biggs, for coroner; C. A. Harrison for treasurer, and J. Calvin Smith for representative in the General Assembly.

In addition to those declared party nominees for various county offices, the following men, with no opposition, are declared party nominees for township offices:

Pleny Peel, justice of the peace, Griffins Township.

H. U. Peel, justice of the peace, Bear Grass Township.

Noah R. Rogers, constable, Bear Grass Township.

N. S. Riddick, justice of the peace, Williams Township.

Barrett Company Observes National Cotton Week

Observing national cotton week last week, the Barrett Company, handlers of Arcadian Nitrate of Soda, used seven miles of cotton cloth in writing to nearly every fertilizer dealer in the country. As a further aid in developing a larger market for American-grown cotton, the Barrett Company makes its soda sacks from cotton. A certain type of ink is used that fades with the first washing, making it serviceable as a Sunday shirt. Arcadian nitrate of soda is manufactured in huge plants located at Hopewell, Va.
