

CORN FED HOGS SHOW PROMISE

Man Feeding Home-Grown Corn To Get Market Price for Grain

Though the mid-west has one of its best corn crops in history and North Carolina will have a short crop due to dry weather, the man who has a supply of home-grown corn to feed to his hogs may expect the animals to pay him market price for the grain.

"There is grave doubt that hogs can pay the price of corn when it is purchased," says W. W. Shay, swine extension specialist at State College. "The price of corn will be the corn belt price, plus freight and the profits of handling the grain. This puts the man who has to buy corn for his hogs at a disadvantage. However, there is a shortage of pork and a shortage of stocker and feeder shipments. This shortage may offset the disadvantage which the North Carolina feeder will face this winter."

Mr. Shay finds that pork held in storage as of September 1, is three percent less than one year ago on the same date. It is 14 percent less than the average for September 1 during the past five years, and holdings of pork were 11 percent less on September 1 than they were one month earlier or August 1.

At the same time, stocker and feeder shipments were 41 percent less in July of this year than a year ago. Mr. Shay suggests that barley be planted this fall and ground for the hogs early next spring when the home-grown corn supply gets low. Barley is about as valuable as corn for hog feed. In the meantime, he pleads with North Carolina growers not to sell off their brood sows. Next season may be favorable to corn production and the man with his usual number of brood sows will reap the benefits, he says.

MORE GAME THIS YEAR THAN LAST

Game Warden Says Dry Summer Has Aided Forest Life

Game is more numerous this fall than for a number of years in North Carolina, the prediction being that gunners will experience the best shooting in many years, according to Charles H. England, game warden.

Particularly are game birds thought to be the most numerous in many years, reports and personal observations of Mr. England leading to the belief that there is a bumper crop of quail, the most popular game bird, and the rabbit, probably most widely hunted of the game animals.

Three factors contribute to the abundance of game, especially quail, Mr. England naming them: (1) weather conditions unsuitable to hunting through much of the previous season; (2) a good breeding season last spring, bringing a good crop of game, and (3) protection furnished through administration of the North Carolina game laws.

Adding to the number of quail has been the large scale breeding of this bird at the State game farm for several years. Many landowners have begun to apply scientific methods to the management of game, Mr. England states. Several methods are in use with varying degrees of success. An important factor in game conservation is attempts to control predatory birds and animals from the half-wild, stray house cats, which are given credit for destruction of useful wild life, particularly birds.

BIG INCREASE IN CANADIAN LEAF

Crop Is Being Made Larger Every Year; Helped by English Tariffs

(Wilson Times)

Mr. Tom Lee, of Montreal, Canada, who has been on this market for several years, returned home yesterday.

He says that Canada is increasing her tobacco crop every year and is going in big for the leaf.

The protective tariffs of the English Empire has tied her colonies into a close compact in retaliation against America, and England gives her colonies a preferential rate of only 50 cents for tobacco raised in her dominions, while she charges other countries, which includes America, more than $2 a pound.

Not only that, England is encouraging her colonies to endeavor to raise everything required in the kingdom in order to keep all of her resources to herself. She believes that is what made America rich, and so she is following our example. England is even making the American industries which have gone over the border into Canada to escape the high American tariff duties to pay a tariff corresponding to the amount of American capital, resources, and equipment secured and made in America.

So our farmers in pitching their crops should remember that nearly every country in the world is trying to live at home and beat America, and that is what the Republicans have brought to us as a result of their high tariff systems. This party has got us in bad with all other nations, and this is hurting agriculture, industry, and general business.

NOTICE OF SALE
By virtue of and pursuant to judgment of Hon. F. A. Daniels, entered at the September term, 1932, of the superior court of Martin County, in the case of Atlantic Joint Stock Land Bank of Raleigh, vs. Ludie Roberson and others, the undersigned commissioner will, on Monday, October 31st, 1932, at noon, at the courthouse door of Martin County, offer for sale, at public auction, for cash, to the highest bidder, those certain tracts or parcels of land in Williams Township, Martin County, North Carolina, particularly described as follows, to wit:

FIRST TRACT: On the road leading from the islands to the Jamesville and Williamston road, about 4 miles southeast of the town of Williamston, having such shapes, metes, courses, and distances as will more fully appear by reference to a plat thereof made by J. R. Mobley, surveyor, on the 8th day of August, 1922, adjoining the lands of Arthur Williams and the Godard Brothers on the north, the lands of Ben Gray and John Lyons on the east and southeast, the lands of Godard Brothers and George Williams on the south, and the lands of John Hopkins on the west, and more particularly bounded and described as follows:

BEGINNING at a post in the Island Road, corner of Godard Brothers; thence with the line of Godard Brothers north 70 degrees 28 poles; thence north 45 east 26 poles to an oak; thence south 36 east 19 poles; thence with the line of John Lyons north 43 west 80 poles to a branch; thence with said branch north 52 west 42 poles; thence north 40 west 98 1-5 poles; thence north 15 west 32 poles to a sweet gum, corner of Godard Brothers; thence with the line of Godard Brothers north 86 west 21 poles; thence south 4 west 2 poles; thence south 73 west 100 poles to Peters Swamp; thence with said swamp south 2 west 40 poles; thence south 24 west 36 poles; thence south 36 east 55 poles and south 5 east 30 poles; thence north 76 east 70 poles to the said Island Road; thence with said road south 17 east 35 poles to the beginning, containing 168 acres, more or less.

Excepting, however, that part of said tract described in deed of trust from Theodore Roberson and wife to R. G. Harrison, trustee, dated March

Build Up Health and Pains Go Away
WOMEN who suffer from weakness often have many aches and pains which a stronger state of health would prevent.

Women in this condition should take Cardui, a purely vegetable tonic that has been in use for over 50 years. Take Cardui to improve the general tone of the system in cases of run-down health and "tired nerves." Women have found, in such cases, that Cardui helps them to overcome pains and make the monthly periods easier. CARDUI is safe and wholesome for women of all ages. Try it!

25, 1921, of record in the register's office of Martin County in book G-2, page 214; which is hereby particularly referred to for a description of the part excepted.

SECOND TRACT: About 4 1-2 miles southeast of the town of Williamston, having such shapes, metes, courses, and distances as will more fully appear by reference to a map made by S. Peel, surveyor, the 18th day of January, 1923, adjoining the lands of Paul Smithwick on the north, the lands of Theodore Roberson and Bettie Allen on the east, the lands of John Cherry and Alfred Hilliard on the south, the lands of Edgar Smithwick on the west, and more particularly bounded and described as follows:

BEGINNING at a gum stump on the edge of the Jamesville and Williamston road, corner of Alfred Hilliard and Edgar Smithwick; thence north with the line of Edgar Smithwick 16 east 177.6 poles to an oak and gum stump, corner of Paul Smithwick; thence with the line of Paul Smithwick south 70 degrees 15 minutes east 85.8 poles to a pine, corner of Paul Smithwick and Theodore Roberson; thence with the line of Theodore Roberson south 5 degrees 15 minutes west 48 poles to a poplar stump; thence south 35 degrees 15 minutes east 35 poles to an oak; thence south 32 degrees 15 minutes west 20 poles; thence south 79 degrees west 20 1-5 poles; thence south 22 west 25.8 poles to a branch; thence with said branch south 31 degrees 45 minutes west 9.6 poles; thence south 30 west 8 poles; thence south 8 west 24 poles to the said Jamesville and Williamston road; thence with said road back to the beginning.

Said tracts of land will be offered for sale separately any purchaser of either or both of them other than Atlantic Joint Stock Land Bank of Raleigh shall be required to deposit with the commissioner ten per cent (10) in cash of the amount of his or her bid as a guaranty and forfeit, pending confirmation of sale by the court. This September 28, 1932. JNO. C. RODMAN, JR., Commissioner.

LITTLE OFFICE HAS BIG MAILS

Located on Old Ironsides, Post Office Handles Over 500,000 Letters in Year

Washington.—Down two hatches and almost amidship on the berth deck of the historical Constitution one of Uncle Sam's smallest but most widely patronized post offices Sunday rounded out its first year of handling patriotic and ship's mail.

Harry Moore, navy mail clerk, who has been postmaster on "Old Ironsides" since the first cancellations were made September 10, 1931, estimated more than 500,000 letters had gone through the tiny office, mostly from stamp collectors, but also for the 85 officers and men on the old vessel.

Sunday was another of his busy days affixing the coveted "U. S. S. Constitution—Washington, D. C." postmark an nadunofficial cachet picturing the frigate sailing closehauled with sails set.

The post office, intentionally hidden away so as not to detract from the ship's original appearance, has but 12 feet of floor space but is equipped to handle everything except registered mail and money orders.
