

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

By Mrs. Winnifred Parker, Home Service Director Virginia Electric And Power Company

Of the 57 varieties, the unexpected guest causes more mental gymnastics than any other. There are only two things to be done when a guest of any kind arrives—one is welcome home (or them), and the second is like unto it—share what you have.

Where the family is large the sharing is easy—there is always enough for one or two more. But the small family presents a different condition. It is not so easy to make two croquets feed four or even three. No amount of magic can transform two congealed salads into three just as pretty congealed salads. And if they were small to start with, the task is even harder. But whatever you do, don't serve your guest and go without yourself. Divide it or don't serve it at all—your guest will be uncomfortable otherwise, and you have failed to be a perfect hostess. Perhaps the nicest way to divide a congealed salad is to dice it, and serve on a bed of lettuce or shredded cabbage. Its "dividedness" is least obvious this way. A congealed dessert may be diced and served with a boiled custard.

But what can you do with two pork chops when four are to be served? Well, even this isn't hopeless. Cut the meat from the bone. Dice or grind it—diced is better. Brown it nicely, season with onion salt and pepper. When done add tomato juice to make as much gravy as you need to go around. Thicken slightly and serve on toast. If you haven't any loaf bread, toast cold biscuits. They are even better. If you haven't any cold bread, do this: Grind the meat, season and brown. Make a biscuit dough. Roll out 1-3 inch thick. Spread the meat mixture on it and roll like a jelly roll. Cut in thick slices, place cut side down on greased pan and bake in hot oven until done. Meanwhile in the pan in which you browned the meat make a thickened gravy and pour over the rolls on platter.

A few hard cooked eggs used to garnish the platter or the salad helps out if either is skimpy. But maybe you haven't any eggs. Other garnishes are sliced or quartered tomatoes, lettuce or parsley, or shredded cabbage or shredded raw carrot or raw turnip. And if you have nothing with which to garnish, then use your loveliest serving fork and know it will be good.

Sometimes it happens you just simply haven't enough of anything to

FORD REGAINS LEAD IN SALES OF NEW CARS

Has Wide Margin Over Nearest Competitor in Past 3 Months

Since June, when volume deliveries of the new Ford V-8 cars began, Ford has led all competitors by a wide margin of sales of passenger cars, commercial vehicles, and trucks, according to official figures reported today by Mr. N. C. Green, of the Williamston Motor Company, local Ford dealer.

Ford took the lead in national motor car sales in June, increased his lead in July, as production of the new Fords mounted, and maintained the lead throughout August, according to reports for that month already received from 34 states, Mr. Green declared. In addition to this, the latest reports also reveal that Ford led in sales in the largest cities during the first 10 days of September.

In June, the first month when volume deliveries of the new Ford cars were available, Ford's share of total passenger car sales in the United States reached 35.9 per cent, as compared with 24.9 per cent for its nearest competitor. Ford commercial cars were 50.5 per cent of all such vehicles sold, as compared with 37.6 for its nearest competitor, while Ford trucks represented 35.7 per cent of all truck sales, as compared with 27.6 per cent for the nearest competitor.

Ford sales in July, as revealed by official registrations, mounted over

Many New Tobacco Farms in Australia

E. C. Squire, American Trade Commissioner in Australia, says: "According to an announcement of the Queensland Minister for Lands, 43 tobacco farms at Harvey's Range, Townsville, will be opened immediately and 80 acres in the M'reeba district will be made available for settlement in September. The Harvey's Range land comprises areas from 120 to 258 acres, and are to be made available as perpetual leases at a capital value of 10 shillings an acre. At the annual conference of the Victorian Tobacco Growers' Association at Bendigo recently it was reported that in Victoria there were 2,300 growers and that this year's crop was estimated to be worth 1,000,000 pounds sterling compared with 500,000 pounds sterling for the 1931 crop."

June figures and Ford's share of the business was increased. Ford passenger car sales reached 38.4 per cent of the total business as compared with 24.2 per cent for its nearest competitor. Ford commercial cars were 54.4 per cent of all cars sold, giving Ford a greater percentage of the total business than all other manufacturers combined. The Ford share of national truck sales was 34.4 per cent, as compared with 27.1 per cent for its nearest competitor.

The reporting of registrations in August in the various states is not complete, but on the basis of reports thus far received from 34 states, Ford sales again led the field.

Since volume deliveries of the new Fords began in June, Ford has accounted for 45.2 per cent of all new passenger car sales in North Carolina, as compared with 32.2 per cent for its nearest competitor. Mr. Green added that Ford sold 2,093 of the total of 4,626 cars of all makes sold in the State in June, July, and August. Ford's commercial car and truck unit sales also exceeded those of any other manufacturer.

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed by Mrs. Ida Clark, unmarried, on the 3rd day of April, 1925, and recorded in book X-2, page 25, we will on Saturday, the 22nd day of October, 1932, at 12 o'clock noon, at the courthouse door in Martin County, Williamston, N. C., sell at public auction, for cash, to the highest bidder, the following land, to wit: Beginning at stump on the S. side of the Williamston and Everetts road go around no matter how you stretch it. Then take everything you have in the way of meats and vegetables. Dice everything and toss all together with mayonnaise. No known combination has ever proven a failure. If it is too cold to have a salad meal, then combine in a hot dish, season nicely and call it stew. Anything can be committed in the name of stew. If your guests don't like it perhaps they will next time give you a bit of warning.

But the unexpected guest need not cause a single flutter. If you are afflicted with unexpected guests, try the ounce of prevention. A small space on the pantry shelf set aside and stocked for an emergency is no end of comfort time and again. Some useful things to put there and ways to use them are:

A can of salmon or tuna fish. Creamed and served on toast, or made into croquets, or scalloped either is delicious. Made into a pie you yourself will almost believe the tuna is real chicken. Either is delicious made into a salad.

A bottle of olives will dress up the simplest meal and can be used in numberless ways.

A jar of dried beef can be served just so, or creamed, or combined with eggs.

A can of tomatoes or tomato juice is easily transformed into a cocktail or a cream soup, a gravy, or with our present quick setting gelatins and using double strength you may have a congealed aspic in a surprisingly short time.

A can of evaporated milk should be included unless you live in the country and have plenty of fresh milk. Milk is such a good stretch. Keep a can of it in your refrigerator also, and if your guest gives you as much as 1-2 hours you may have ice cream for dessert.

But above everything else, whether your meal suits you or not, apologize for nothing. To show your embarrassment to your guests is to fail to be a perfect hostess.
