

TO CELEBRATE SETTLEMENT OF FIRST COLONY

County People Urged To Become Members of Association

Invitations have been issued to people in Martin County to join the Roanoke Island Historical Association which has been incorporated under the laws of North Carolina for the celebration of the 350 anniversary of the birth of English-speaking civilization in America on Roanoke Island in 1585.

This urgent information of the need of the support of the people in this section came from W. O. Saunders, widely known editor of the Elizabeth City Independent, who is president of the organization, and who is serving an executive director with a number of notables associated with him in the effort to put across the event.

Vice presidents of the body include Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer; Thomas C. Darst, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of East Carolina; Dr. Frank Porter Graham, president of the University of North Carolina; Dr. A. R. Newsome, secretary of the historical commission of North Carolina as secretary; Frank Page, head of the Raleigh branch of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Co., as secretary.

Dr. R. B. Drane, formerly rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Edenton, was elected historian with an executive committee working under the board of directors, composed of W. O. Saunders, chairman; Angus Dhu MacLean, Washington; W. D. Pruden, Edenton; Charles Whedbee, Hertford; Dudley Bagley, Moyock; D. B. Fearing, and R. P. Etheridge, of Manteo.

The board of directors carries such names as A. B. Andrews, of Raleigh; Henry R. Dwire, director of public relations of Duke University; Henry L. Stevens, former national commander of the American Legion; Dean H. Dolison, Peacock, rector of Christ Church, Norfolk; and a number of others.

The celebration on Roanoke Island in 1934 will not be an exposition, but the association will endeavor to recreate in part the Roanoke Island of 1585 and in a primitive setting re-enact the drama and romance of the first settlements. Paul Green is at work on a play, while Fred Koch will direct its production. A real tribe of Indians will be used with old Fort Raleigh rebuilt.

"Executive offices for the organization comes an invitation to people in this county in every walk of life and to every descendant of early settlers in America to contribute gift or membership to the work of this association."

"There are four classes of membership: Members, $1 a year; sustaining member, $10 per year; contributing member, $25 per year; patron, $100 annually. To every member will be sent a handsome membership certificate, which should be framed and treasured as a family heirloom," says Mr. Saunders.
