Anderton-Jackson A wedding of much interest to a large number of friends throughout Eastern North Carolina took place in Richmond, Va., last Saturday when Miss Catherine Jackson and Mr. Wilbur E. Anderton were married by the Rev. Mr. George Bellingrath, Presbyterian minister of that city. Only a few close friends and relatives were in attendance upon the ceremony.

Mrs. Anderton is the popular young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson, of Roanoke Rapids, where her father is secretary-treasurer of the Roanoke Mills Company. Mr. Anderton, son of Mrs. J. P. Anderton, of Roanoke Rapids, is the popular head accountant of the local district of the Virginia Electric and Power Company.

After a short wedding trip to Washington and other points of interest the young couple returned home Tuesday. Mrs. Anderson will join her husband here in the near future.

Bridge Party for Bride One of the prettiest and largest parties of the winter season was given at the Woman's Club last Tuesday by Mrs. J. S. Rhodes, Mrs. Rush Bondurant, and Miss Ruth Manning honoring Miss Lyda Cooke, who was married on Monday to Mr. Hugh Wyatt.

Christmas decorations were used attractively, a brilliantly lighted tree in the end of the hall completing an effective background for bridge tables where nearly a hundred guests played.

Mrs. Warren H. Biggs, who held highest score, was given a book-end set. Mrs. N. C. Green and Mrs. Jesse Harrell received an ice-box set and cards for second and third prizes.

Refreshments carrying out the Christmas appointments were served by the hostess, after which the guest of honor was invited to the tree, laden with lovely gifts from the guests present.

Wyatt-Cooke Miss Lyda Cooke and Mr. Hugh B. Wyatt were married at the home of the bride's parents here Monday afternoon with the Rev. Z. T. Piephoff, Presbyterian minister, officiating. Only a few close friends of the contracting parties were in attendance.

Mrs. Wyatt, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Cooke, of this place, is very popular throughout Eastern North Carolina, where she has a host of friends. Following her graduation from the local high school she entered actively into the insurance business.

Mr. Wyatt, since coming here from Rocky Mount several year ago, has been prominently connected with general contracting and building.

Following a short wedding trip to points of interest in Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt returned here yesterday afternoon to make their home with the bride's parents for the present.

Announce Marriage Mr. and Mrs. John E. Manning announce the marriage of their daughter, Alva, to Mr. James E. Pate on November 26, 1932, at the residence of Rev. Chas. H. Dickey, Baptist minister here.

Mr. and Mrs. Pate are now residing on the Bowen farm, near Williamston.

Thomas-Britton The marriage of Miss Margaret Moore Britton to Mr. Fletcher Thomas in Dillon, S. C., on February 6, 1932, was announced here Christmas day, the young couple having successfully kept the event a secret during that time.

Miss Britton is the daughter of Mrs. Beulah Britton, of this place, where she is very popular among the younger set. Mr. Thomas is the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomas, of Bethel, where he is connected with his father in business.

The young couple are now at home in Bethel.

Daniel-Edmondson With only a few immediate relatives and intimate friends in attendance, Miss Johnnie Frances Edmondson became the bride of Mr. William Alton Daniel here last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Chas. H. Dickey, Baptist minister, performing the ceremony at the parsonage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the young couple left for Virginia where they visited several places of interest, returning after a short stay there to make their home in the Ewell house on Smithwick Street here.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel are both well known to the younger people of this section. Mrs. Daniel is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edmondson of this place. She was recently graduated from the Williamston High School. Mr. Daniel, son of Chief and Mrs. W. B. Daniel, also of this place, is prominently connected with the Watts Theatre here.
