Philatheas Entertain The Christian Philatheas entertained the Men's Bible class and the teachers of the Christian church with a turkey supper on Tuesday night, February 14, at the Woman's Club rooms.

The program was quite simple, opening with a male quartet and invocation. The Philatheas welcomed the guest, to which a hearty response was made, after which the main part of the program, the feast, commenced. The food courses were interspersed with a number of appropriate toasts to the teachers and classes. Then came the special delivery of Valentines to a number of those present.

There were about 90 present, and all voted hearty thanks to the fine class of Philatheas.
