Preparing for Another Season

The best farmers of the country are already making preparations for the 1934 crop. Some are cutting the bushes from the ditch banks and fence rows; some are cleaning out the ditches, and numbers of them are breaking land.

This all means that next fall these farmers will have better harvests than those fellows who give no thought and no attention or labor toward the production for next year until the weather begins to warm up in the spring and he has only a short time to do his thinking and his work.

Farming is like all other kinds of work. It requires a good bit of thinking as well as hard work. A farmer may work himself to death without thinking and gain very little. The South will have to do more thinking on production and selling if she is to get a fair return for her work.

Why Use CWA Labor on Highways?

Why should the CWA workers be worked on the State Highways? The Government is making very large appropriations to the state to build highways, and now the state highway department is getting the bulk of the CWA labor, much of which is being spent for selfish purposes by certain communities, and a large part of it is not very well administered.

Who Wants Him?

Greece is going to expel Samuel Insull, the great stock robber, from her borders. Let us hope that when he gets out of Greece that the United States gets him and squeezes the grease out of him. He was one of those fellows who helped to break the country, and here is hoping that our country marks him as a living example of fraud and deception.

CHRISTMAS

By GUY A. CARDWELL Christmas is here again—the day of days—the anniversary of the birth of Christ, “the anointed one,” without whom there would be no hope of a glorious future.

Strange as it may seem, it was Napoleon, the man of war, who said—

“Alexander, Caesar, Charlemagne and I myself have founded great empires; but upon what do these creations of our genius depend? Upon force. Jesus alone founded his empire upon love and to this very day millions would die for him.”

The Kingdom of Christ, founded upon love, has endured even until this day, and will go on to lift and guide frail, selfish humans, as the star led and signaled hope to the Wise men of old.

In spite of the thoughtlessness and selfishness of men, most of us stop at this season and for a time search our hearts, seeking for the right, and endeavor to put into practice the rule of Him who was cradled in the manger:

“Whatever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.”

If we would only keep the candles alight in our hearts throughout the year, what a changed world this would be. There would be an absence of envy, impatience, prejudice, spitefulness and snobbery, and an abundance of love and kindly consideration for those around us, especially for the afflicted, lowly, meek, and for the poor, who are always with us.

Most of us are possessed of charitable inclinations, but in a selfish way. We give of our worldly goods until it hurts; but few give to the wretched ones, rich and poor, the sympathy that they crave and need to make them whole again.

Pray God that we may see more clearly and attain strength sufficient to enable us to more perfectly do His will and go His way, on life's journey, during the coming year. If this prayer is answered it will assuredly make for peace and good will on earth as there is in heaven.

Too Many Criminals Set Free

Six Watauga County deputy sheriffs recently resigned their jobs recently, because, after they had exposed themselves to great dangers and many hardships in honestly performing their duties, with hardly any compensation, and after bringing law violators before the bar of justice, they saw them practically set free by the judge.

What is true in Watauga is likewise true in a number of counties and states.

The judges and governors are keeping the prisons empty and are filling the country with robbers and criminals of every kind. Some of the courts need to be classed as jokes; and those who would stand up for the protection of honest society are made jokes of by pardoning boards, governors, and the like.

It is good to see men like these Watauga deputies stand up for law and order and not let the scales of justice and reason be swayed by some court, which may be controlled by political gangs, whose purposes are entirely foreign to law and order.

Taxation Still Haunts Country

The same old ugly and despised question of taxation is haunting the country still. The little folks and the big folks and all the other folks are wiggling and floundering about as hard as they can to try to escape taxation.

If it is a question of who has or can get the most friends in the law-making bodies as to which class has to pay the bulk of the taxes. So long as we have so many people trying to escape taxes, there is going to be plenty of trouble.

How nice it would be if everybody would come up and willingly pay his fair proportion of all needed taxes.

The law ought to charge every man according to his ability to pay.
