Anti-Rat Campaign

About the first of the year, Williamston plans to conduct one of the greatest anti-rat campaigns ever heard of here, and I, as Mayor, earnestly solicit the cooperation of every citizen in making the drive successful.

Thousands of dollars worth of property are destroyed each year by rodents that have multiplied many-fold here during the past few months.

Complete details will be announced within a few days. During the meantime every property owner is asked to make preparations to take an active part in the worth-while undertaking.
