Britton-Leggett
 In a service of dignity and simplicity, the marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Leggett and Thomas Marvin Britton, both of Williamston, was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Martha Leggett, in Williamston Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. Rev. Charles T. Rogers, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the impressive Methodist ring ceremony.

White and green featured the decorations. Silver four-branched candelabra bore white tapers against a background of cedar and fern. Only close relatives were present for the ceremony. The bride, an attractive brunette, was becomingly attired in biege crepe with accessories to match. She wore a shoulder corsage of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Britton is the elder daughter of Mrs. Martha Holliday Leggett. Mr. Britton is the only son of Mrs. Beulah Britton, of Robersonville.

After a brief trip Mr. and Mrs. Britton will be at home on Smithwick Street here.

Britton-Weaver
 Miss Rosa Lee Weaver, of near Robersonville, and J. D. Britton, of near Everetts, were married last Saturday in Suffolk, the wedding coming as a surprise to their many friends. Mrs. Britton is the daughter of Mr. R. H. Weaver, and Mr. Britton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Britton. The young couple will make their home with the groom's parents, near Everetts.

Taylor - Jamison
 With only a very few close friends attending, Dr. Joshua Taylor, prominent surgeon of Washington, N. C., and Miss Mary Ann Jamison, of Richmond Va., were married here Wednesday in the Church of the Advent. The ceremony took place at 2:30 in the afternoon, with Rev. E. F. Moseley, rector of the local church officiating. Dr. Taylor, familiarly known throughout Eastern Carolina as "Dr. Josh," is one of the most prominent doctors in the state and is connected with the Taylor Hospital in Washington. After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left by motor for Norfolk Va., and other places.

Jones - Rochelle
 Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rochelle, of Washington, N. C., announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Brown, to Joseph Alexander Jones, on December 24, 1933. Mr. Jones, a local man, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones, of this place. The young couple are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Wilson in New Town.

Build Up Health and Pains Go Away
WOMEN who suffer from weakness often have many aches and pains which a stronger state of health would prevent. Women in this condition should take Cardui, a purely vegetable tonic that has been in use for over 50 years. Take Cardui to improve the general tone of the system in cases of run-down health and "tired nerves." Women have found in such cases, that Cardui helps them to overcome pains and make the monthly periods easier. CARDUI is safe and wholesome for women of all ages. Try it!

AN APPRECIATION
 The Columbian Peanut Company, now in its fourth year at Williamston, wishes to express its appreciation to the people of the community for their good will and cooperation, particularly as a town. We are proud to be considered a part of this community, and in return, feel that we have made a very definite contribution to the economic life of the section.
 We are also grateful for the confidence placed in us by the farmers of this entire section, as evidenced by our capacity business each year. We pledge them our sincere efforts to maintain a strong market here for peanuts, in the future as in the past. Whenever we can be of service, we trust you will not fail to call on us.
 So it is with a peculiar sense of the fitness of the season that we take this occasion to extend to the people of this section our very best wishes for a
Joyous Christmastide and a Happy and Prosperous Year to Come
