How to Accumulate MONEY!
 This Association offers a plan whereby it is possible for a child with a small allowance per week, or an executive with a large annual salary to build up a cash reserve. Every person should acquire the saving habit, and there is no better way than through the Martin County Building and Loan Association.
34th Series Will Open Saturday, March 3rd
 A child with an allowance of 50 cents per week should be encouraged to invest 25 cents per week in this association. The man or woman with a salary of $10 to $100 per week should put a certain part of this income into building and loan.
