Working night and day for nearly one week. Chiqf William Gray. Robersonville, and Sheriff t' B. Roebuck last Friday solved the robbery of L. T. Chesson's state in Oak City on the morning of December 18 Four self-admitted tobbers, John Rogers, Jesse and Grover Bland and Willie Jones, all colored, are now in the county jail awaiting trial in the superior court. Joe Bland, charged with receiving goods known to have been stolen, is awaiting a hearing before Justice of the Peace John W. Hines in Oak City

Boring their way through the back door of the Chesson store, the four men, each carrying sacks, began niling them up and when they left the four had cleaned the store of merchandise valued at about $700 It was agreed that each was to keep what he got. When discovered later Tuesday morning by the store owner, the rahbery proved a mystery, but a few day later the appearance of Santa Claus or a large scle begn to create suspicion Grover Bland's right new wife played ON DISPLAY HERE DAY YESTERDAY Santa Claus in a big way to her pe ple.
