

O. K. PLANS FOR AGRICULTURAL BUILDING HERE

Digging up old maps made 60 and 70 year ago, the commissioners discussed the boundary line dispute recently originated by the sister county of Beaufort. Every one of the maps the commissioners could get their hands on placed the boundary as a straight line from the head of Black Swamp, a few miles from Dymond City. The Beaufort claimants maintain that the line should run a straight course from the head of Welch's Creek and that part of Lymond City, long extinct and almost forgotten, is in Beaufort County. The most interesting map studied by the commissioners at their meeting was drawn by Francis Lightfoot, probably one of the most exacting surveyors ever to plot a foot of ground in this section, about 70 years ago.

No developments in the boundary line controversy have been reported since Beaufort appointed J. D. Grimes to handle its claim, the commissioners in this county just sitting tight and holding everything—so far.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MRS. ROEBUCK

Mrs. Jack Hardison and Mrs. W. J. Griffin were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower last Wednesday evening for Mrs. Julian Roebuck, a recent bride.

The honoree was presented a large number of attractive gifts. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. T. C. Griffin, served a delicious salad course.

Cruising for Safety on Nation's Highways

The large and unique cruiser of the Standard Oil Company, pictured above, will reach here tomorrow afternoon and feature a safety program at 8 o'clock that evening on the Main Street lot next to the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company. The program, free to all, follows a parade of the streets here.

New High for Auto Deaths in October

An all-time high record for automobile fatalities was set in North Carolina in October.

The state bureau of vital statistics recently reported there were 119 deaths in motor vehicle mishaps in October, which exceeds by 2 the monthly high of 117 killed in December, 1934.

V-8 LEADERSHIP

ON OCTOBER 31 of last year, Henry Ford announced his intention to build a million Ford V-8s in 1935. We are pleased to report that this goal was reached in exactly ten months instead of a full year.

One million cars and trucks is an impressive total. But figures by themselves mean nothing. It is what they represent that counts. Selling a V-8 at a low price has brought a new kind of automobile within reach of the people. Producing it has provided steady work for hundreds of thousands of men in the Ford plants, in associated industries and on the farm.

These million Ford V-8 cars and trucks have helped to make things better all around. In the first ten months of 1935 the Ford Motor Company paid out, in the United States alone, $140,119,326.00 in wages and $523,111,389.00 for materials.
