Plymouth, May 1.—(Special).—A total of $975.35 has been paid to Mrs. Sadie F. Alexander here by attorneys for A. L. Alexander, who left here several months ago. This money was returned to Mr. Alexander after the AAA had been killed by the United States supreme court. This was Mr. Alexander's part of the tobacco tax money that he had paid under protest during the Agricultural Adjustment Administration regime. The attorneys paid it to C. V. W. Ausbon, clerk of the court. Since Mr. Alexander was not here to claim it, the court ordered it paid to Mrs. Alexander.
