

MARTINS GET 6-5 WIN IN 14-INNING GAME THURSDAY

Take Thriller After Losing Three Games in Row During The Week

In a five-extra-inning contest, Williamston nosed out Kinston here yesterday afternoon, 6 to 5, to register its first win since Sunday and maintain a standing just short of the .500 mark. After playing listless ball for three days and dropping contests to Snow Hill and Greenville, the Martins showed renewed life when they mixed it with the Eagles. Henry House was back in the line-up and saved the game when he brought down a fly in deep center, right on the steps of the school building. Marvin Ferrell, brother to the well-known boys high er up in the baseball world, showed up unusually well at first and at bat yesterday. Gentry, a newcomer, handled the third sack very successfully, while Earp went to short to aid Corbett, who has a sore leg, a left-over from the day-before game. Gentry hit twice on his first two trips to the bat.

In the first three innings of the thriller yesterday, the Eagles touched Cherry for 5 hits and 4 runs, spotted playing accounting for most of the runs. Taking hold in the fourth, the Martins added one tally in each of four frames to knot the score. Desperate efforts were made by both teams to get a man around the circuit, but four were stopped at the home plate in the attempts, and there was some air-tight ball seen by the fair-sized crowd of spectators.

Livewood succeeded Cherry, who went out for a pinch-hitter in the third, and continued through the tenth, allowing only 4 hits in the 7 innings he worked. One run was added by the Eagles in the tenth, when a wild throw to first landed in the dug-out. Williamston again came from behind in its half of the inning to knot the score when Gaylord made it home on Walters' single. The game was won in the 14th when Royce, batting for Dean, got a double and scored on Gaylord's single and Wagner's error. Dizzy Dean pitched the last four innings, striking out six in the last three. Smith went the route for Kinston.

Manager Walker used 17 players in the contest yesterday which included every man in a Williamston uniform except himself. Two of the four pinch-hitters delivered. Gentry was released this morning and Corbett goes back to his position. Archer has been released, Manager Walker stating this morning that he was looking for two or three new players within the next day or two.

County Board Will Review Listings at Meet Here Monday

Few Complaints Are Likely To Be Made During Special Meeting

Although they are expecting very few, if any, complaints, the Martin County commissioners will meet here next Monday as a board of equalization and review to make any needed adjustments in values placed on personal and real property by the 10 list-takers during April. Every property owner has a right to contest the values placed on his property, but in accordance with the law, the complaint must be placed before the board of equalization at its meeting next Monday. Soon after the board of equalization completes its work, the county auditor takes over the books and starts preparing the total values for consideration by the commissioners when they meet to determine the 1936 tax rate. After these figures are prepared and the rate is determined, it is then too late to effect adjustments in values placed on the books by the list-takers. The board is not over-anxious to hear unfounded complaints, but just objections to certain assessments will be gladly heard at the meeting Monday. As far as it could be learned, the board has no other business scheduled for consideration at the meeting next Monday.

Announce Sunday Services For Church In Oak City

Regular preaching services will be held in the Oak City Christian Church Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, it was announced today by the acting pastor, Rev. J. M. Perry. The minister will preach on, "God Does What for Who?" The public is invited.

Typhoid Inoculation Drive Is To Start Monday, June 22nd

An anti-typhoid campaign, planned on an extensive scale, will get underway in this county Monday week June 22, and will continue for four weeks. Arrangements for the clinics have just been completed and the dates were announced today by County Health Officer J. H. Saunders.

According to the schedule of clinics appearing in this paper, the campaign will be carried into every community of the county, making available free immunization to every person, white or colored, old or young. In planning the campaign, health authorities are calling upon the people to cooperate with the undertaking that costs them nothing and means so much to the health of everyone. Tell your neighbors about the clinic in your community, study the clinic schedule and make certain to avail yourself of the free vaccinations.

Officials of Pulp Mill Favorably Impressed

STATE CONVENTION

Martin County is well represented in the State Democratic convention under way in Raleigh today, reports stating that the representatives will cast the 30 county votes for Roosevelt for president. The convention is expected to steer clear of the pending governorship race and other political contests within its own ranks, and center an attack on the Republican party.

COUNTY COURT HAS JUST ABOUT CAUGHT UP WORK

Not To Be in Session Next Week Account of June Superior Court

The Martin County recorder's court virtually cleared its docket in the Tuesday session this week and signed off until June 23, giving over to the one week term of superior court, convening next Monday. Floyd James, charged with stealing a bicycle several months ago, was sentenced to the roads for 90 days. Ed Louis Hyman, booked on a bastardy charge, was directed to pay to the prosecuting witness $1.50 a week during the next six months, and reappear before the court at that time.

Clarence Purrington and Sam Stokes, charged with violating the liquor laws, were found not guilty. Elisha Speller, charged with non-support, was directed to pay $2 a week to the court for the prosecuting witness during the next six months. George Whitaker, charged with larceny and receiving, was found not guilty. James Brooks was required to pay $1 a week for one year to the prosecuting witness in the case charging him with bastardy.

The case charging Marvin Barnhill, Roy Fleming and Hallie Cherry with disorderly conduct, was not pressed. In a second case charging Barnhill with reckless driving the court found the defendant not guilty. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the cost in the case charging Alvin Hathaway with reckless driving. Judgment was suspended upon payment of cost and agreement of the defendant to remain out of the county during the next two years in the case charging John Etheridge with an assault.

Robert Lee Howard was sentenced to the roads for 30 days in the case charging him with an assault. Willie Williams was sentenced to the roads for 60 days on an assault with a deadly weapon count. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in the cases charging Roy Jesse Lane and A. C. Case with violating the motor vehicle laws. Ira Edmondson was fined $50, taxed with the cost and given a three months suspended road sentence in the case charging him with manufacturing liquor.

Judgment was suspended upon payment of the cost in the case charging Tom Perry with drunken mule driving. Morrell Jones was released upon payment of the cost in the case charging him with operating a motor vehicle with improper lights. Watts Rhodes, charged with violating the liquor laws, appealed to the higher courts when he was fined $50 and taxed with the cost. Frank Armstrong and Joseph Smith were released upon payment of the costs in the cases charging them with assault. The court suspended judgment upon payment of cost in the case charging Jesse Spivey with reckless driving.

Extensive Survey of Timber Supply in Section To Be Made

Definite Action On Plant Location Expected The Latter Part of July

An extensive survey of the timber supply in this section was started today in connection with the proposed location of a $2,000,000 pulp mill here. The survey will last about five or six weeks, and the mill owners will then make immediate arrangements to start construction of a plant here, it was learned. Coming here Wednesday afternoon, the president, secretary and treasurer, chief engineer, and other officials of the company visited the proposed site on Roanoke River just below the Standard Fertilizer Co. plant, and collected much data in connection with freight rates by water, rail and truck, and power rates. Every one of the factors proved very pleasing to the officials who were said to have been much surprised at the low power rates and the advantageous transportation systems available here.

The town and community impressed the visitors, and they remained overnight, cancelling engagements with officials in one or two other cities to the south of here. The party left shortly before noon yesterday for Richmond, and will continue to their homes from there today or tomorrow.

Mr. G. H. Harrison, who is representing the town, said today that present indications are favorable for the location of the $2,000,000 plant here, but no definite action would likely be taken before the middle or latter part of next month. In the meantime an extensive survey of the timber supply will be made, and other facts determined.

Representatives of a New York firm were here last week and virtually completed arrangements to locate a basket factory at this point next fall. The head officials of the firm now operating in the north and middle west were much pleased with this as a probable location, and said they would announce their plans the latter part of this month. Cost figures on the proposed plant could not be obtained, estimates placing them at about $75,000. More than 100 people ordinarily are employed in a plant about the size of the one proposed here.

Martin Club Women Home From Washington Meeting

Twenty-three Martin County women attended the meeting of Country women of the world, held in Washington City last week. Three of the women, Mrs. T. M. Woodburn, Mrs. J. E. Smithwick and Mrs. E. F. Whitehurst were in Washington for the entire week and had an audience with the First Lady of the Land.

Other women journeyed to Washington from this county by bus and spent only two days in the capital, returning by way of Endless Caverns and Natural Bridge. Those taking the tour, sponsored by Mr. Paul Ricks, were: Mrs. Carrie Gurganus, Mrs. Dora Bowers, Mrs. Lizzie Robertson, Mrs. Jasper Everett, Mrs. Sallie Coltrain, Mrs. J. Eason Lilley, Mrs. Elmo Lilley, Mrs. Kader Lilley, Mrs. S. B. Lilley, Mrs. Paul Peel, Mrs. Lucian Peel, Mrs. W. O. Peel, Mrs. Lee Hardison, Mrs. John Gurkin, Mrs. Clarence Gurkin, Mrs. Emily Smith, Misses Hattie and Margaret Everett and Miss Lora E. Sleeper.

Holly Springs Society To Give Ice Cream Supper

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Holly Springs Methodist church will serve an ice cream supper at the church there next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Proceeds go to the church fund.

DAILY VACATION SCHOOL TO OPEN HERE NEXT WEEK

First Session Will Be Held In Methodist Church At 9 O'clock

Arrangements are now complete for a daily vacation Bible school in this community, beginning next Monday, it was announced today by one of the several local ministers. A large number of leaders and assistant workers have offered their services in conducting the school, which has the promise of much success.

The school is scheduled to get underway at 9 o'clock Monday morning when the teachers and pupils meet in the Methodist church. Following a brief worship period there, the various groups will repair to other churches for class work. The beginners, including children 4 and 5 years of age, and headed by Miss Josephine Harrison, assisted by Ella Wynne Critcher, Jane Moore, Hannah Vick Everett, and Edna Ballard, will remain in the Methodist church for their studies. The primary pupils, ranging from 6 to 8 years of age, and headed by Mrs. J. W. Watts, Mrs. E. F. Moseley, Olena Swain, Mary B. Edmondson, and Bolton Cowen, will hold their sessions in the Episcopal church. Juniors, 9 to 12 years of age, will meet in the Baptist church with Mrs. D. E. Darden in charge, and she will be assisted by Mrs. John F. Thigpen, Misses Ruth Manning, Marie Griffin and Grace Manning. Miss Eva Peel, assisted by Mrs. F. W. Hoyt, Mrs. Frances Parker, and Miss Addie Lee Meador, will head the intermediate classes in the Christian church.

Miss Ora Finch will supervise the handcraft work for the juniors and intermediates. The refreshment committee will be headed by Miss Josephine Grant and the music program by Ben Manning. J. D. Fowen will have charge of recreation for the juniors and intermediates, it was announced.

All children in the town and community between the ages of 4 and 17 years are invited and urged to attend the school.

Hoey Holds To 4,321 Lead; Second Race Is Believed Assured

Dr. McDonald To Harp On Machine Politics And Liquor Problem

Contrary to straw-vote predictions and the expectations of almost everyone, Clyde R. Hoey led in the primary last Saturday for governor over Ralph W. McDonald, complete official figures giving the Shelby orator a margin of 4,321 over his nearest opponent. The straw vote conductors scored a great hit when they predicted that fellow McRae would trail the ticket.

Falling to get a majority by thousands of votes last Saturday, Hoey will be called again to battle McDonald in a second primary on the Fourth of July. However, McDonald has not officially asked for a run-off. His county managers are said to have received telegrams advising them that a second primary would be asked for.

The State Board of Elections has not canvassed the returns at this time, but the complete vote is: Hoey 193,862; McDonald, 189,543; Sandy Graham, 125,079; and McRae, 6,737. The official returns will be canvassed tomorrow, and candidates will be notified immediately of their standings, the law giving them five days to file for a second primary in those cases where majorities were not obtained.

Reports have it that McDonald will shift his campaign tactics for the July 4 contest and make the liquor question paramount.

Record Meat Raid Made On Smokehouse Locally

Raiding the smokehouse of Mrs. T. F. Harrison on Houghton Street here some time last Tuesday night, thieves stole 20 hams, 6 shoulders and a stand of lard, officers described the raid as one of the largest reported in this section in months. The raid was not discovered until yesterday morning, and no trace of the thieves has been established.

Alf M. Landon, Governor of Kansas, was chosen yesterday by the Republican convention in Cleveland to head the GOP ticket for the presidency. His running mate is to be named today.

Several Hundred Martin County War Veterans To Start Receiving Bonus Bonds Monday, Tuesday

Erection of Second Forest Fire Tower in County Authorized

With a marked interest shown in the service by Martin people, the forest conservation program continues to advance rapidly in this county. Latest plans call for the erection of a second steel tower, measuring 100 feet, Warden Hardison stating today that officials from the State Department of Conservation and Development had selected a site on the Haislip farm, a short distance from Hassell, for the project. It could not be learned when work on the project would be started.

Construction of a modern home for a warden and a fire tower in Griffins Township is going forward, but it could not be learned when the work would be completed. A dozen citizens in that section have applied for the position, it is understood.

Complete reports on the forest warden activities during the past few months, but their accomplishments are certain to have offset many times the cost of the service. It is estimated that 20 or more fires have been checked by the service, not before considerable damage was done, to be sure, but before untold damage resulted.

Unofficial Tabulation Shows Coburn Second

Rodman Only One To Get Majority; No Run-Off in Prospect

Bailey, Washington County Man, Trails Attmore by Only Eleven Votes. Unofficial but fairly complete returns from the last Saturday primary gave William B. Rodman, Jr., of Beaufort County, a clear majority and virtually assured Robert L. Coburn, of Martin, a seat in the North Carolina State Senate from the second district. Rodman, polling 6,839 votes, received a 683 majority. Coburn was second with 5,615 votes, and while he is 542 votes short of a majority, unofficial reports indicate the third man will not ask for a second primary.

No official statement has been issued by T. B. Attmore, third man, but it is generally understood that he will concede the nomination to Mr. Coburn. It was thought early this week that Carl L. Bailey, Washington County man, would forge ahead of Attmore, and that he would probably carry the contest into a second primary. Bailey is trailing Attmore by only 11 votes, but since the returns are regarded as just about complete, it is not likely that he will gain third position when the official vote is in, thereby relieving him of any claim to a second contest. Dees, Pamlico man, ran a poor fifth with only 1,696.

Coburn led the ticket in Martin and Washington Counties. Bailey was high man in Tyrrell and Dare, and Rodman ranked at the top in Beaufort and Hyde, leaving Attmore to lead in Pamlico.

The following vote tabulation by counties is unofficial for several of the counties, but it is regarded as about complete and correct:

	Cob.	Bail.	Rod.	Att.	Dees
Martin	2,235	917	1,289	378	122
Beaufort	1,185	1,169	3,083	2,221	326
Washington	1,239	909	791	146	70
Pamlico	148	293	311	980	863
Tyrrell	261	440	341	113	69
Hyde	340	566	915	399	90
Dare	207	938	109	906	156
Totals	5,615	5,232	6,839	5,243	1,696

No Careful Driver Found This Week

During an entire week of spotted observation, the old snapper did not see a single auto driver stop for the signs located at a number of street intersections here. Some decreased their speed, and some stopped, no doubt, but they were not observed. Others, including a law enforcement officer, preacher and the common run of officers, continued on their way. No crashes resulted, but that was not the fault of some of the drivers. Drivers were seen speeding on three of the principal streets. Double parking next to empty stalls along the curb were noticed, and there was a general disregard of the traffic regulations, including two turns over a no-"U" turn sign on Main Street. Yet there were no accidents.

SUPERIOR COURT STARTS MONDAY; 12 CASES ARE SET

Judge W. C. Harris Slated To Preside Over One-Week Term

With only 12 cases on the criminal docket and the trial of only one or two civil actions scheduled, the one-week term of Martin County Superior Court, convening next Monday, is expected to complete its work by Wednesday or Thursday. One or two rather serious charges are on the docket, however, and more time than one might expect is likely to be required to complete the work. Judge W. C. Harris, of Raleigh, is slated to preside over the term.

Will Oxydine, Robeson County Indian, is charged with first-degree murder, but it is doubtful if he will be tried on that count. Some believe he will confront a second-degree charge when the court opens. Oxydine, before killing his son-in-law, Turner Saunders, 27-year-old negro, in a logging camp in Griffins Township the 16th of last month had one killing already to his credit. He is said to have served several years of a 15-year sentence in prison.

The case charging Jarvis Griggs with manslaughter is also scheduled for trial, the defendant now being at liberty under bond. Griggs was charged with manslaughter following an accident on the Washington road early on May 17, when Glenwood Capehart lost his life.

Marion Hodges, charged with assaulting a man named Cox with a deadly weapon and with intent to kill at the Old Mill Inn several months ago, also faces trial next week.

Other cases on the docket: Paul Holliday, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon. C. L. McKeel, embezzlement. Charles Howell, jr., and Rufus Andrews, housebreaking and larceny.

H. H. Proctor, drunken automobile driving. John Lee, colored, faces a string of charges, include violations of the liquor laws, carrying a concealed weapon, driving a car with improper brakes, and pushing Chief William Gray into a creek. He was given a trial in the county court but appealed.

Charles Edwin Spruill, attempted housebreaking. Reuben Rogerson, breaking and larceny. Joe Peel, larceny and receiving. Harold Lee, assault with intent to commit rape.

Horton Elected To Head Legion Post In County

Hugh G. Horton, local attorney, was elected to head the John Walton Hassell Post of the American Legion at a meeting of the membership here this week. Messrs. Mack Wynn, of Robersonville; Monroe Holliday, of Jamesville, and Ayers, of Hamilton, were named vice commanders. John A. Ward, Williamston, was elected adjutant, and Bill Gray, Robersonville, was made sergeant-at-arms, giving the post a splendid and able leadership for the coming term.

Over Hundred Will Be Delayed Because Of Technical Errors

Approximately $257,000 In Bonds and Cash Is Due Veterans of County

The several hundred World War veterans in this county will start receiving their bonus bonds next Monday and Tuesday, according to unofficial information received here yesterday. The bonds, totaling a round $257,000, are to be mailed in Washington City shortly after midnight next Monday, and are due to reach here about noon that day. The distribution will be started immediately in the several towns of the county, and rural carriers will start deliveries the following morning.

A hundred or more of the bonds due veterans in this county will be delayed because the original applications were not properly handled, it is understood. According to reports, the government will not deliver a bond to the owner when his mail is addressed in the care of some other person. An investigation of such cases generally follows and the veterans advised to establish some address of their own that direct delivery may be made. The hundred or more bonds that are almost certain to be delayed can be expected within a few days after the first deliveries are made, it is believed.

Veterans living in rural sections are urged to await the arrival of the mail carriers and sign for their bonds. No witnesses are necessary in those cases where the veteran can write his name and his identity is known to the mail carrier, it is understood. Those veterans not known to the postal employees will have to get some one to identify them before the bonds can be delivered.

The post office department has completed arrangements to cash the bonds through various offices, without cost to the veteran. The banks can handle them, but any cost incurred will be taxed against the veteran, it is understood. The veteran who wishes to cash his bonds may do so by turning them into his respective post office. A receipt is given him, and the bonds are sent to Raleigh, and within a day or two the cash is returned directly to the veteran. Bonds turned over to other institutions will have to be sent to Washington City for cash, requiring.

Total County Vote Not Up To Guesses Of Prognosticators

Total Vote Cast In the 1932 Primary Compared with That Last Saturday

The size of the vote cast in Martin County last Saturday fell below the expectations of many, judging from the average estimates of the large number of guesses entered in The Enterprise guessing contest. Some of the estimates were 1,000 above the actual votes cast, and only one entered in the contest was below. Joseph Holliday, Jamesville man, won the contest with his guess of 3,095 votes, the estimate missing the mark by 37 points. Rev. E. F. Moseley, local minister, was second with a guess of 3,275. The guesses averaged around 3,500.

While the vote was 243 greater than the one in 1932, it falls far short of representing the voting strength in this county, the registration books carrying the names of approximately 8,131 eligible voters. The vote cast in the primary last Saturday and the one cast in the June, 1932, primary, by precincts, are, as follows:

Precinct	1936	1932
Jamesville	363	368
Williams	108	149
Griffins	243	279
Bear Grass	238	208
Williamston	814	714
Cross Roads	224	262
Robersonville	426	362
Gold Point	90	82
Poplar Point	132	94
Hassell	109	66
Hamilton	153	96
Goose Nest	232	189
Totals	3,132	2,889
