The Final Analysis

The Martins stepped out and batted up a storm during the final week of play in the Coastal Plain. Paced by Jimmy Sudduth, with 13 hits out of 24 trip for a .542 percentage for the week, the whole club hit the pill at a .336 clip, collecting 72 hits for 120 bases out of 214 appearances at the plate in the six games. Included in the 72 hits were 11 doubles, 5 triples and 9 home runs. The local market has been assured one of the best corps of buyers in years. There will be new and added members to the buying personnel with every one of the major com panies being represented individually with their best men. About dozen or more independent com-panies will have their direct representatives, and others will be represented by special buyers. Some of the buyers are arriving this week and over the week-end the town will fast become a little metropolis, with everyone watching and waiting for the marketing season to get under-way at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.
