The Old Reliable John A. Manning Is Again on the Peanut Market Here This Year

This is to advise my farmer friends that I will again be in the market for your peanuts this year. I sincerely appreciate your past favors, and hope you will give me the opportunity of serving you again this season.

I am not seeking special favors, and do not expect you to do business with me unless it is to your advantage to do so. I have always dealt fairly, paying as much as the market will permit, and I believe it will pay you well to let me see your crop before you sell.

With my new warehouse, corner of Haughton Street and Marshall Avenue, I will be in a better position than ever before to serve you. See or call me before you sell your peanuts.
