MALLORY-DANIELS
A wedding of much interest to their many friends throughout this section was that of Miss Bessie Caudell Daniels to Joseph Sidney Mallory on last Saturday in the Williamston Baptist parsonage, the Rev. James H. Smith officiating. Mrs. Mallory is the attractive young niece of Mrs. William Oscar Council, of Oak City, and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Daniels. Mr. Mallory is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Mallory, and is a progressive young farmer of near Oak City. The bride and groom number many friends among both the younger and older people of this section. Immediately after the ceremony, the couple left for a short wedding trip to western North Carolina and points in Virginia. They will be at home near Oak City after December 10.

RECENT BRIDES ARE HONORED SATURDAY
On Saturday afternoon, from 3:30 to 6 o'clock Mrs. W. G. Peele and Miss Lela Brown Barnhill entertained with a bridge party at the home of Miss Barnhill, on Haughton Street, for Mrs. Hubert Coburn and Mrs. V. G. Spivey, recent brides. The reception hall, front and back parlors were attractively decorated with flowers and greens suggestive of the holiday season, and the Christmas motif was carried out throughout the party. Mrs. F. F. Pollard, of Bethel, sister of Miss Barnhill, and Miss Frances Dailey greeted the guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line, which was stationed in the reception hall. This was composed of the hostesses and the honorees, Mrs. Coburn and Mrs. Spivey, Mrs. Murray Hodges and Mrs. William Pollard, of Greenville, who are also recent brides, and Miss Daisy Lee Carson, of Bethel, a bride-elect of this month. After several progressions, Mrs. J. W. Watts held high score and Miss Ethelyn Eason low and were given attractive gifts. Mrs. Spivey and Mrs. Coburn were given luncheon cloths. Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. Pollard, Miss Carson, and Mrs. Charles Peel, a recent bride, were remembered with lovely gifts of linen. Refreshment of ice cream and cake were served. The individual plates were decorated with tiny tapers placed in gum drops and Christmas baskets of mints. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Ethel Watts, Huntington, W. Va.; Mrs. Bruce Russell, Miss Beatrice Wynne and Mrs. A. P. Barnhill, of Everetts; Mrs. Leon Roberson, Mrs. Leland Andrews, Mrs. Alton Carson, Mrs. Royal Carson, Mrs. T. F. Pollard, and Miss Carson, of Bethel; and Mrs. Pollard and Mrs. Hodges, of Greenville.

Flue-cured Tobacco Stocks Increased by Large Margin
Stocks of flue-cured tobacco on hand October 1, 1936, were 850,072,000 pounds compared with 798,366,000 pounds on October 1, 1935, an increase of 51,706,000 pounds over the holdings of a year ago. During the period from July 1, 1936, to October 1, 1936, flue-cured stocks increased 102,975,000 pounds, compared with an increase of 158,526,000 pounds during the same period of 1935. The government report does not take into consideration the reduction in production caused by dry weather last summer. If the past growing season had been a normal one, tobacco production in the flue-cured areas would probably have ranked along with some of the biggest on record.

LEGION AUXILIARY IN MEET SATURDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the John Walton Hassell post of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Saturday afternoon in the home of the president, Mrs. Ray Goodmon, with about 21 members present. Rev. Z. T. Piephoff conducted the devotionals and brought the unit an inspiring Christmas message. The regular business of the meeting was handled, including a report of the district meeting held the preceding Wednesday. Plans for taking care of a mother and seven children in one family and three children in another family were formulated. After the business meeting, the hostess invited the members to the dining room for the social hour; tea, sandwiches and candies and nuts being served amid a lovely Christmas setting. Each member present drew a tiny remembrance. The next meeting will be held the first Saturday in January at the home of Mrs. W. H. Gray in Robersonville.
