

Oak City Entertains For School Masters

The regular meeting of the Martin County School Masters' club will be entertained in Oak City Thursday evening of this week, it was announced today by Miss Stalls reporter for the school there. The program has not been announced, but all school principals in the county are expected to be present.

The Oak City seniors are bursting with pride just now. Their classes arrived last week. This comment was made by one of the pupils immediately after he received his ring. "I don't see how I can possibly pass my physics test now, I'm too excited to think."

Some of the roads in recent days were almost impassable. One truck was unable to make it's full route, causing a number of students to be absent during several days.

Every student in the local high school has become a member of one of the following clubs: The Glee Club, directed by Miss Lavell Kennedy and Mr. H. M. Ainsley; the athletic club under the direction of Messrs. C. R. Edwards and J. E. Mullen; the health club, supervised by Misses Ann Early and Reta Lee; public speaking club under the supervision of Miss Beatrice Stalls. Recently, for the first time, each club had a separate meeting and perfected its organization in detail. The clubs will present programs in

After Brief Freedom, Man Heads for Prison Again

Eddie Salisbury, colored man just a week out of the prison camp, is now awaiting due process of law before he returns. Salisbury, still wearing his prison clothes, was arrested Sunday by Officer Barfield in Hassell for the alleged robbery of two filling stations there the night before. The man will probably get a hearing in Judge Peel's court today.

Only a few small articles were missed from the stations, according to incomplete reports heard here.

Attorney and Doctor Are In Auto Wreck Sunday

Dr. N. B. Marriner, of Beihaven, and Attorney H. S. Ward, of Washington, were slightly hurt Sunday afternoon, when their car was forced off the road and into the woods by another machine near No. 90 Filling Station on the Jamesville road. The fenders and other parts of the car were smashed, but the two men were able to continue their journey with the machine. Clyde Knight, colored, was said to have backed his car from the filling station, causing the two men to drive into the woods to avoid a collision.

Town Board Holds Meet Last Night

The local town commissioners held a short and uneventful meeting last evening, official action being limited to the issuance of a permit for a $3,500 bus station on Main-Street next to the Tar Heel Apartments.

Truck parking and traffic regulations were discussed, but no ordinances were passed, the authorities directing law enforcement officers to handle the problem to the best advantage possible from the standpoint of truck operators and traffic.

Resolutions carrying certain provisions are being drawn today in connection with granting a permit for the construction and use of a bus station. The conditions under which the permit is granted are the removal of the present old building from the lot in its entirety, clearance of sidewalks and their maintenance. A contract for the construction of the bus station is expected to be completed immediately, the builder, Sid Mobley, already having started placing brick on the lot for the building.

nize the man who fleeced out of the $1,100," Sheriff Roebuck asked Nichols.

"Recognize him? Why I can just shut my eyes right tight and see him just as plain," he said. Isaac admitted he did not sleep a wink all Thursday night, adding that he did not believe he could rest for a week. John Cromwell, father of 10 children, is believed to have lost $228 in cash in about the same way last Thursday, when he first reported that he had lost the money from his
