JOHNSON - WILDMAN
Parmele, June 30.—The marriage of Miss Josephine Ericson Wildman, of Parmele, and Mr. Emmett Carl Johnson, of Fayetteville, R. F. D., was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 30, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Wildman. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Dick, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Fayetteville.

The vows were spoken in the living room, where tall baskets of gladioli and blue hydrangeas were arranged against a background of pine. On either side of the improvised altar were white candles in seven-branched candelabra. Raymond Wildman, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Mamie Lee Kimball, pianist, and Mr. J. D. Jerome, soloist. Miss Kimball played Schubert's "Serenade" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and Mr. Jerome sang Cadman's "At Dawning." The Wedding arch from "Lohengrin" was used for the professional; "To a Wild Rose" was played during the ceremony, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used for the recessional.

The bridegroom had as his best man Mr. Pat Foley, of Fayetteville. Misses Louise and Betty Wildman, small nieces of the bride, formed an aisle for the processional with ribbon. They were daintily attired in dresses of yellow organdy.

The bride's maid of honor was her sister, Miss Mary Elizabeth Wildman. She was attired in a dress of rose-flowered chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Rev. J. T. Wildman. She wore a gown in a Wallace blue chiffon dress with lace trimming. Her short illusion veil was finished with a coronet of flowers. She carried a showered bouquet of sweetheart roses, lilies of the valley, and delphinium.

Mrs. Johnson received her education at Flora MacDonald College. For the past several years she has been a teacher in the Cumberland County schools. Mr. Johnson received his education at Campbell College and the University of North Carolina. He is now engaged in farming near Fayetteville.

Following the ceremony a reception was given, after which the couple left by motor for northern points. For traveling Mrs. Johnson wore a tailored black chiffon frock with white trimming and accessories and a corsage from her bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home after July 10 at Fayetteville, R. F. D.
