ETHERIDGE HOUSE
The marriage of Miss Frances Elizabeth House of Robersonville and Ernest Lee Etheridge of Williamston was solemnized Thursday morning, November 25, at half after 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester House. The Rev. J. H. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church of Williamston, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony.

Ferns and long leaf pines were used to form the improvised altar in front of the mantel. Tall floor baskets of white chrysanthemums were used on either side of the candleabra holding burning cathedral tapers.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Jessie Faye Green of Aulander rendered a program of bridal music, including "To a Wild Rose," "At Dawning" and "Liebestraum." Miss Hilda Modlin of Jamesville sang, "I Love You Truly" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

At the first notes of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," the ushers took their places at the altar. They were Howell and Garner House brothers of the bride.

Immediately following then was Mrs. Clayton House, of Hamilton, who as matron of honor was the bride's only attendant. Mrs. House wore a wine velvet dress with accessories to match, and carried an arm bouquet of Talsman roses tied with matching ribbons.

The bride entered with her brother, Jasper House of Henderson, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Henry Griffin, of Williamston. While the pastor pronounced the vows, Miss Green played softly, "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life."

For her wedding the bride wore a becoming chiffon velvet of majestic blue. The softly gathered neck was held by a single rhinestone clip. She wore a blue velvet turban with nose veil and matching accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of Briarcliff roses and valley lilies. Lateral for travel she added a coat of black sealskin.

THANKSGIVING BRIDE

Mrs. Cyrus W. Bazemore, of Windsor and Williamston, who before her marriage on Thanksgiving Day in the Chapel Hill Baptist Church, was Miss Lena B. Madry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Madry, of Scotland Neck.

Mr. Etheridge is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester House of Robersonville. She is a graduate of East Carolina Teachers College, and for several years has been a member of the Martin County faculty.

Mr. Etheridge is the son of Mr. H. J. Etheridge and the late Mrs. Maggie Etheridge of Oak City. He has lived in Williamston for some time where he is associated with the Standard Fertilizer company.

Immediately following the marriage service, the couple left for a short trip to unannounced points. Upon their return they will be at home in Williamston.

BAZEMORE-MADRY

The Baptist church of Chapel Hill was the scene of a lovely wedding on Thanksgiving evening at six-thirty o'clock, when Miss Lena Bernice Madry of Scotland Neck became the bride of Cyrus W. Bazemore of Windsor and Williamston. Before Dr. O. T. Brinkley, pastor of the church, the solemn vows were spoken.

Palms and ferns and chrysanthemums, with cathedral candleabra, gave the setting for the wedding. At the appointed hour Miss Hazel Worsley of Rocky Mount, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. J. Thurman Madry of Scotland Neck, rendered a musical program. Miss Worsley at the organ played "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," by St. Saens; and Wagner's "O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star." Mrs. Madry sang "O Promise Me," by De Koven and "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs-Bond. During the ceremony McDowell's "To a Wild Rose" and Liszt's "Love Dream" were softly rendered.

As Wagner's Wedding March was played, ushers, who were H. B. Spruill of Windsor, Dean Francis Bradshaw of Chapel Hill, and Robert W. Madry of Chapel Hill and Raymond Madry of Scotland Neck, entered to take their places before the altar.

Miss Sophie Hinton of Elizabeth City and Miss Ann Townson of Murphy were bridesmaids. Miss Emily Bazemore of Windsor, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Little Miss Peggy White Madry of Scotland Neck, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Master Ray Madry of Burlington and Scotland Neck, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride entered the church with her father, Robert Jarratte Madry, who gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a gown of royal blue velvet, made along empire lines. She wore a Juliette cap of blue velvet from which a veil hung to her shoulder.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Simpson, of Jamesville, where she has many friends. Mr. Dixon is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jas. B. Dixon. They will make their home in this county.

THE NEWEST THING IN A WATCH its Water Proof Self Winding Shock Proof Anti-Magnetic

This is one of the finest and the most novel watches on the market. Before you buy a watch Christmas be sure to see this DE FRECE "Multiproof" Watch.

The case is thoroughly tight. Neither dampness nor dust can get into the case of a De Frece Multiproof watch while it is being worn. The crystal is shatterproof and water will not enter the watch when swimming or being exposed or submerged in water.

It winds itself automatically. The De Frece Multiproof watch cannot be wound by the crown in the usual way. After putting the watch on the wrist, a few movements of the arm will start the winding, which is accomplished by the oscillation of a pendulum around the watch movement inside the case.
