Legion Auxiliary Holds Regular Meet Saturday

On Saturday afternoon at the Legion Hut Messdames J. R. Winslow, W. P. Harris, H. L. Swain and Arthur White were joint hostesses to their invited guests.

Punch and wafers were served in the auxiliary room by the hostesses' daughters.

The president, Mrs. Winslow, called the meetin to order, the allegiance to the flag was pledged, Miss Eva Peel read the scripture, and the Lord's prayer was prayed in unison.

The secretary, Mrs. John A. Ward, read the annual report of the unit's activities.

Mrs. W. H. Gray gave a short but very interesting talk on Fidae, stressing the seven points of Fidae, the major work for peace.

The following officers were elected unanimously: president, Mrs. C. A. Davenport; second vice president, Mrs. W. J. Beach, and chaplain, Mrs. J. R. Winslow.

Delegates to the state convention to be held in Raleigh soon are Mrs. Davenport and Mrs. Mack Wynne as alternate.

The program for the day was in charge of the music department, Mrs. C. Davenport and Mrs. C. L. Wilson presented a program in honor of the beloved composer, Stephen Collins Foster. The stage was beautifully decorated and depicted the Federal Hill Garden of Mrs. Rowan, of Kentucky. Mrs. Wilson introduced the characters and Miss Eva Peel in a very gracious manner gave the life of Stephen Foster.

Each of the characters in the cast were dressed in costume of the period and the plantation singers made a hit with their black faces. Each and every number was beautifully rendered. The members of the auxiliary and their guests fully enjoyed such a musical treat as has seldom been given in the county and much credit goes to Mrs. Davenport and Mrs. Wilson in arranging the program.

The next meeting will be held the first Saturday in July with Mrs. V. A. Ward and Mrs. C. L. Wilson as hostesses.

Linen Shower Is Given For Miss Lela Brown Barnhill

At her home on Haughton Street on Thursday evening, Miss Estelle Crawford entertained with a bridge party and linen shower for Miss Lela Brown Barnhill, bride-elect.

Tables were arranged in the reception hall and living room which were attractively arranged for the occasion. Lovely vases of snapdragons, larkspur and lilies added much to the effect.

Mrs. Leman Barnhill received high score prize, a bottle of perfume, and Mrs. Robert Coburn was given bath powder for consolation. The honoree was presented silver in her selected pattern.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Crawford, served pineapple julep during the evening. Tippy cake with nuts and mints was served.

Little Miss Anne Gresham brought many lovely gifts of linen to the bride in her doll carriage which was decorated in pastel shades.

Those present were Miss Mildred Talley, of Randleman; Mrs. A. P. Barnhill, of Everetts; Mrs. F. F. Pollard, of Bethel; Miss Irene Mizell, of Snow Hill; Messdames Leman and Garland Barnhill, R. L. Coburn, V. G. Spivey, W. H. Herrings Win Two Tilts In Two Days

The Jamesville Herrings won baseball games Saturday and Sunday from Bear Grass and Everetts, respectively, both games being played in Jamesville. Ed Martin, pitcher for Jamesville, allowed only six hits in the Saturday game while his team mates with Martin leading, gained three hits and 12 runs off Roberson, the opposing pitcher. Brown caught for the Herrings with Jones receiving for the Bear Grass team.

Slim Gardner pitched stellar ball for the Herrings in the Sunday battle, allowing three hits resulting in two runs for the opposition. Slim struck out 11 of the opposing batters and led his offense of six hits and three runs.

Manager Corey will accept games within a fifty mile radius for his team.
