BARNHILL-MITCHELL
A wedding of simplicity and charm was solemnized in Durham, Saturday, Nov. 18, at 10 o'clock when Miss Grace Taylor Barnhill, of Durham, formerly of Williamston, became the bride of Raymond Thomas Mitchell.

The troth was spoken at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Barnhill, on the Roxboro Road, Rev. L. C. Larkin, former pastor of the bride, and Methodist superintendent of the Rocky Mount district officiated during the pledging of the vows.

Attractive informal decorations were used in the living room where the ceremony was held. An improvised altar was banked with wood-wardia, ferns and baskets of white chrysanthemums and lilies. Candles added soft illumination. The couple spoke their vows kneeling on a white prie-dieu in front of the altar. They were unattended.

For her wedding outfit the bride wore an Alex blue wool ensemble, trimmed with squirrel with dubonnet accessories. Her flowers were orchids and valley lilies.

Immediately following the ceremony the newlyweds left for un-announced points.

Mrs. Mitchell, an attractive brunette, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Raleigh Barnhill, formerly of Williamston, now of Durham. She received her education in the Williamston schools and was graduated from Bragtown high school and the Durham College of Commerce. At present she is connected with the Christian-Harward Furniture company.

Mr. Mitchell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mitchell, of Durham. He finished at Durham high school, and has been engaged in outdoor advertising business in Durham for the past several years.

Only the two immediate families were present.
