HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

By Mary Brown Allgood, Home Service Director, Virginia Electric And Power Company

Use milk, butter, cheese and cream in your daily cooking.

Southern Chicken
3 1-2 to 4 lb. chicken
Flour, salt and pepper
1-2 cup butter
1 cup milk
1 cup cream

Cut chicken into servings, season and roll in flour and brown in hot butter. Place in baking dish, cover with milk and cream which has been seasoned to taste. Cover and cook at 300° for 1 1-2 to 2 hours. When ready to serve make gravy of liquid left in baking dish. Serve chicken with cooked rice or mashed potatoes.

Deviled Creamed Ham

2 tbsp butter
1-2 tsp chopped onion
3 tsp flour
2 tsp prepared mustard
2 cups milk
2 cups milk
1 cup diced cooked ham
Dash cayenne pepper
Melt butter in sauce pan, add onion, cook slowly until tender but not brown. Blend in flour, mustard and cayenne pepper. Add milk gradually and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add diced ham. Serve hot on hot biscuit, toast or in patty shells.

Liver Patties

1-2 lbs. liver
2 cups cracker crumbs
1 tsp salt
2 tsp grated onion
1-4 tsp pepper
4 tsp butter
1-2 cups milk
Bacon
Parboil or broil liver and put through food-chopper. Mix thoroughly with other ingredients. Shape into patties about 1 inch thick. Wrap with strips of bacon and fasten with string. Broil until brown.

Baked Fish with Golden Sauce

6 fish steaks, about 2 lbs.
1 small bay leaf
1-2 tsp salt
Dash pepper
1 tsp chopped onion
2 tsp butter
1 cup milk
1 tsp flour
1-2 cup milk
2 tsp lemon juice
2 egg yolks
Lay fish steaks in buttered baking dish, adding seasoning and onion. Dot with butter. Add 1 cup milk. Bake 325° for 40 minutes. Remove fish to hot-platter. Melt butter, add flour, add milk from baking dish and 1-2 cup milk. Stir until well blended. Add lemon juice to egg yolks. Cook several minutes. Pour sauce over fish.

"Excursion Rates" For All Vegetables

"Excursion rates" for vegetables as well as people would help bring Americans more vitamin-rich food by encouraging farmers to market more truck crops, says A. R. Sabin, U. S. Department of Agriculture statistician. Sabin reports that, in 1940 alone, enough truck crops went unmarketed because of low farm prices to supply 13,000,000 people for a month. And on this same subject, it is pointed out by William Fel-lows Morgan, Jr., New York City Commissioner of Markets, that the people will eat more vegetables when they are made available.

The Long Way Home

Traveling the long way around from Palestine to England because of the war, Mrs. Ruth H. M. Wood, daughter-in-law of Lord Halifax, British ambassador to the U. S., arrives at Los Angeles by Clipper plane. Her husband, Lieut. Charles Wood, is in Syria.

'Gasless Sundays' Would Decrease Fatalities In State

Raleigh — "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," Ronald Hocutt, director of the Highway Safety Division, said in commenting on the prospect of "gasless Sundays," which he said would probably cut North Carolina's traffic fatality toll by as much as 20 per cent.

"While I am not prepared, on the basis of information I now have, either to advocate or condemn "gasless Sundays," it is interesting to speculate as to the probable effect such a restriction might have on our traffic accident toll," Hocutt said.

"Our records show that 109 of the 449 persons killed in traffic accidents in North Carolina the first five months of this year were killed in Sunday accidents. In other words, one out of every four traffic fatalities in this State occur on the Sabbath. Thus, if our motorists were compelled to keep their cars at home on "gasless Sundays," we might reasonably expect a substantial reduction in traffic deaths as a result."

"The safety director said the Sunday traffic toll this year totaled 15 in January, 20 in February, 30 in March, 15 in April and 29 in May. The heaviest toll for any one day this year was on Sunday, March 16, when 11 persons were killed in traffic accidents in the State. Saturdays were even more dangerous than Sundays, the five-months toll for Saturdays being 110 lives. Thus, 229 of the 449 persons killed the first five months of this year were killed on Saturdays and Sundays. This was 51 per cent of the total.

"Think of it, we could cut our traffic accident toll in half by having gasless week-ends," Hocutt declared. "Of course, I am not sure that such action will ever be taken or need to be taken in this country. Seriously though, a substantial reduction in traffic fatalities could be effected without this prohibitive action. If our motorists were willing, they could have their cake and eat it too. That is to say, they could continue to ride and still not kill or be killed. All it takes is the use of a little courtesy, a little caution and a little commonsense in driving."

Was Here Wednesday
Mr. Eli Barnhill, of Durham, spent Wednesday here with relatives.

No Summer Lull In Business World

The three main trends current in the business picture are: (1) Department store volume of goods moved is well on the way to setting an all-time high for the first half of the year, while profits are holding up well and dollar volume will be highest since 1929, and with prospects bright for maintaining the pace in latter half of year; (2) Increasing sentiment in various quarters for putting some curbs on extension of credit in consumer lines — which means a tightening up on installment buying; and (3) Voluntary, as well as "negotiated" wage increases are being made in many lines, not all of them — defense goods industries, either.

Other items indicating there'll be no mid-summer lull this year include the Federal Reserve Board's findings that general industrial activity increased sharply during May, sending its seasonally-adjusted index to 149 (per cent of the 1935-39 average), compared with 140 in April and 143 in March; the continuing terrific pace of construction awards, which last week hit the third highest total ever reported; and reports of big gains for railroads in both passenger and freight revenues.
