SELL AT THE

Roanoke-Dixie Warehouse, Williamston

This firm is known far and wide for its reputation for selling tobacco as high, if not higher, than any other warehouse or market in the State. CLAUDE GRIFFIN, veteran tobacconist, and JIMMY TAYLOR, well-known tobacco man, will give this one house their undivided attention this year. Every customer, regardless of prominence or position, will receive our usual courteous service and each pile of tobacco sold on our floors will be pushed to the highest peak.

In Mr. BUEL C. WILSON, of Scottsville, Ky., we have a competent auctioneer. His reputation for selling tobacco cannot be excelled and other members of our force will gladly welcome you and give you every service and consideration possible when selling tobacco on our floor. Make your decision now to sell with Jimmy Taylor and Claude Griffin at the Roanoke-Dixie Warehouse in Williamston. Regardless of how high or how low, you will always get the top market price for every pound of tobacco sold with us.
