BARNHILL-HARRISON
Miss Ruby Elizabeth Harrison and Julius Thomas Barnhill, Jr., were married in the Christian Church here Wednesday evening, August 20, at eight o'clock, with Rev. John L. Goff, officiating.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. W. C. Manning, and a trio composed of Misses Marjorie Gray Dunn, Katherine Manning and Elizabeth Parker sang Guy d'Hardelot's "Because," and "I Love Thee" by Grieg. At the conclusion of the ceremony, a prayer, "God Bless and Keep Thee" was sung. Traditional wedding marches were used and McDowell's "To a Wild Rose," was played softly as the vows were spoken.

The altar was beautifully decorated with a background of long leaf pine, ivy and fern. The arch was entwined with ivy and white asters. Tall baskets filled with white gladioli and easter-lilies were placed on either side and seven-branch candelabra shed a soft light on the setting. Reserved pews were marked with white gladioli and asters.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Henry D. Harrison and wore a wedding gown of gardenia satin fashioned with heart shaped neckline trimmed with lace. The long fitted sleeves puffed at the shoulders and ended in a point over her hands. Rows of lace insertion extended from the fitted waistline to the full length of the train. Her full length veil was entirely edged with chantilly lace and fell from a Mary Queen of Scots bonnet of lace. She used as her only ornament a pearl locket, the bridegroom's gift. The bride carried a wedding ring bouquet made of white gladioli and stephanotis tied with white satin.

Miss Neil Harrison, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her dress of Nile green chiffon and lace was made identical to the bride's. She wore matching gloves and a Mary, Queen of Scots bonnet of green net. She carried a Colonial bouquet of lavender and yellow gladioli with matching ribbon. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Vernon Bunting, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Julia Everett, wore dresses of maize and Mrs. Elbert Lee Sherman and Miss Ella Wynne Critcher wore lavender. All the dresses were fashioned similar to the maid of honor's, and they wore matching gloves with tiaras, and net veils. Their nosegays were of contrasting gladioli.

Little Miss Sandra Harrison, niece of the bride, flower girl, wore white net with a matching bonnet and carried a basket covered with white net filled with flowers as the bridesmaids bouquets. Master Fred Pollard, of Robersonville, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Mr. Leman Barnhill attended his brother as best man and ushers were Henry D. Harrison, Jr., brother of the bride; Albert Cook, Thad Harrison and J. O. Manning, Jr.

Mrs. Harrison was dressed in a gown of steel blue and wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Barnhill wore navy and white with a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Edwin Holding was mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Barnhill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis Harrison, of Williamston, and is a graduate of a Raleigh secretarial school. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barnhill, of Everetts, attended the University, Chapel Hill, and is engaged in farming activities with his father.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Anderson, of Wilson; Miss Aylce Burke, Miss Florence Adams, of La Grange; Miss Blanche Dawson, of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Faulkner and son, Mrs. Joe Barnhill, Mrs. Ida Clark, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Barnhill, Mrs. L. A. Clark, Misses Florine and Grace Clark, Polly Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Keel, of Everetts and Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Pollard, of Robersonville.

Immediately following the rehearsal Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Barnhill and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Barnhill entertained honoring the bridal party and guests at the home of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Barnhill greeted the guests and invited them to an improvised outdoor living room where they were served punch by Mrs. J. D. Wooldard and Mrs. D. N. Hix. Mrs. J. O. Manning directed them to the bride's book.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Barnhill received at the living room door and Mrs. J. C. Manning directed guests to the dining room where a three-tiered wedding cake centered the table flanked by white candles and gladioli. Mrs. G. G. Wooldard and Mrs. V. J. Spivey presided. A miniature wedding party arranged on the buffet predominated in the decorations.

Ice cream, nuts and mints were served by Misses Florence Adams and Alice Burke, of La Grange; Blanche Dawson, of Clinton and Betsy Manning.

BRIDES-ELECT HONORED
Honoring two brides-elect, Miss Dorothy Hurley, of Williamston, and Miss Katherine Jones, of Greenville, Miss Lucy Wynne entertained at a bridge dinner Thursday evening at her home in Washington.

Dinner in two courses was served from auxiliary tables arranged in the adjoining living room and dining room. The tables of all white appointments were centered with Piccadilly gladioli floating in crystal containers and the table where the brides-elect were seated was marked with centerpieces of floating white gladioli. The main dinner course of chilled tomatoes stuffed with chicken salad, deviled eggs, potato chips, hot cheese biscuits, pickles and iced tea, was followed by a dessert course of lemon ice and individual cakes frosted in pastel shades and centered with miniature bridesmaids in frilly gowns of shade to blend with the cake frosting. The cakes which marked Miss Hurley and Miss Jones' plate were all white and had miniature brides wearing traditional white.

Following the dinner the remainder of the evening was devoted to bridge and at the conclusion of progressions the high score award was presented Mrs. Wheeler Manning, of Williamston, and Miss Glennie Morse, of Elizabeth City, was second high scorer. Miss Hurley and Miss Jones were presented silver in their chosen patterns.

Guests from Williamston were, Miss Hurley, Mrs. Wheeler Manning, Mrs. W. K. Parker, Mrs. James Ward and Miss Ruth Hurley.
