MORSE-HURLEY

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Bruton Hurley, of Williamston, to William Clarence Morse, Jr., of Elizabeth City, took place in the local Methodist Church last Friday afternoon at 5:30. The bride's father, the Rev. Bernard Talmage Hurley, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli against a background of palms, fern and native pines. Candelabra containing cathedral candles, burned on both sides and at the back of the altar illuminating the scene with a soft glow. Small candles burned at the altar which was entwined with clematis.

An half hour musical program rendered by Mrs. W. K. Parker, of Williamston, at the organ, included: "Venetian Love Song," NEMU; "Ave Maria," Schubert; "To an Evening Star," Wagner; "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," Saint-Saens; "Poem," Fibich; "Intermezzo," Mascagni. During the ceremony, Mrs. Parker played "Angel Serenade," by Braga. Preceding the ceremony "O Perfect Love" was sung by a vested choir and Mrs. James Smith sang "Because." At the conclusion of the ceremony, Mrs. Smith sang "The Prayer Perfect." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Bernard Talmage Hurley, Jr., wore a Vionnet model of ivory faille taffeta with bouffant skirt. The tight waisted bodice was fashioned with sweetheart neckline and full puffed sleeves. She wore a tiara of matching flowers with shoulder length veil. She carried an arm bouquet of mixed flowers tied with blue satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids, Miss Glennie Morse, of Elizabeth City, sister of the groom, and Miss Lucy Wynne, of Washington, wore dresses of Fuchia Rose faille taffeta made identical with that of the maid of honor. They carried arm bouquets of mixed flowers tied with rainbow satin ribbon and wore tiara of matching flowers with shoulder length veils.

The groom was attended by his best man, William Thomas Jackson, Jr., of Elizabeth City. The groomsmen were Andrew J. Bailey, Walter Cahoon, Forrest Dunstan and Wiley Coppersmith, Jr., all of Elizabeth City. The vestible ushers were W. H. Harrison and W. M. Manning, of Williamston. The gentlemen of the wedding party wore white suits.

The bride's mother wore navy corded chiffon trimmed in white with navy accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother wore black chiffon with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Morse, the eldest daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Bernard Talmage Hurley, of Williamston, is a graduate of Louisiana College where she took an outstanding part in music. She is a member of the Sigma Iota Chi sorority. For the past several years she has taught music in the schools of Robeson County.

Mr. Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Clarence Morse, of Weeks-ville, is a graduate of Wake Forest College where he received the L.L.B. degree. He was a member of the Golden Bough and Lambda Chi Alpha and Sigma Delta Kappa fraternities. He was formerly judge of recorder's court of Pasquotank County and member of the general assembly, 1939 session. He is now practicing law in Elizabeth City.

For traveling Mrs. Morse wore an ensemble of beige and cocoa brown with full length fitted coat. She wore a cocoa brown off-the-face felt hat with brown alligator and suede shoes and bag. Her corsage was of talisman roses.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Morse will make their home in Elizabeth City.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Franklin, Miss Jane Franklin, of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Franklin, of Raleigh; Dr. Roy Franklin, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Titus, and Miss Rachel Fox, of Roxboro; Mr. and Mrs. Carson Tolar, of Dillon, S. C.; Mrs. George Ashford and Mr. Robert Graham, of Red Springs; Mr. Calvin Morse, and Calvin Morse, Jr., of Elizabeth City; Mrs. Bob Carter, of Ahsokie; Mrs. O. B. Wynne and Miss Margaret Wynn, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jackson, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Coppersmith, Jr. Mr. Walter Cahoon, Miss Selma Meades, Miss Isabelle Jeanette, Miss Helen Gaither, Mr. Andrew J. Bailey and Ensign Forrest Dunstan, all of Elizabeth City.

Following the rehearsal Thursday evening Rev. and Mrs. Bernard T. Hurley and Miss Ruth Hurley entertained at a cake cutting for the bridal party and out-of-town guests at their home on East Church Street. In the soft glow of candlelight the house was decorated with a profusion of cut flowers in pastel shades. Receiving at the door and in the living room were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison. Mrs. T. B. Brandon invited guests into the dining room where Mrs. Henry Crawford and Mrs. J. D. Mason received. The three-tiered bride's cake iced in traditional white with an arched dome which sheltered a miniature bride and groom was placed in the center of a lace covered table flanked by lighted white tapers in silver holders. An artistic arrangement of white asters and fern and candles was used on the buffet. Presiding over the punch bowl was Mrs. David Hix. Punch and lime sherbert with the bridal cake were served by Misses Marian Hurley, Mary

'Mrs. America' Entry

One of the 200 or more married women entered in the fourth annual "Mrs. America" beauty contest at Palisades Park, N. J., is Mrs. Blanche McLeod of Jersey City. The contest's purpose is to prove that married women are as beautiful as single girls.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED

Wednesday evening, Mrs. Garland Woolard entertained at five tables of bridge to compliment Mrs. J. Thomas Barnhill, Jr., a recent bride. Miss Nell Harrison, sister of the honoree, passed the tallies.

Mixed summer flowers made a lovely setting for the tables. During play the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Leman Barnhill and Mrs. Henry Harrison, mother of the honoree, served iced drinks. At the end of the game a delicious ice cream course was served.

Mrs. Barnhill was presented a carpet sweeper, and Mrs. George Harrison, perfume for high score prize. Mrs. A. P. Barnhill, of Everetts, runner-up, was given a double deck of cards.

Following refreshments Masters Johnnie and Gilbert Woolard called the honoree into the dining room where she found a shower of pantry shelf gifts.
