Proposes New Tax Lumber Workers To On Large Profits Get Wage Increase

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau's proposal for 100 per cent tax of all profits above 6 per cent on capital investment, and administration's pro- er of labor. posed broadening of social security program highlighted the week's de-velopments in the capital. Opposition of SPAB's Donald Nelson, Price Administrator Leon Henderson and others indicates the Morgenthau pro-posal has little chance to go through posal has little chance to go through but the general theory is it was made more as a lever to be used in getting a compromise, milder measure than with expectation it would pass "as is". Social security broadening would extend the "coverage" of unemploy-ment insurance to just about double ment insurance to just about double the number of persons now coming under the law's provisions (40,000,-000), taking in such new classifica-000), taking in such new classifica-tions as domestic servants, agricul-tural workers, and the self-employ-ed. It also would increase the amount of old-age benefit payments. Nothing definite was said at the outset as to size of increase in "takes" from em-ployer and employee, but estimates ranged from "half-again" as much to "several times" as much. It was described as an "anti-inflation" move
