

Chairman Fletcher Issues Ruling On the Unemployment Tax

Unemployed in State Get $18,300,896.43 in Three and One-Half Years

Raleigh — Employers subject to the State Unemployment Compensation who have not paid the State tax of 2.7 per cent of their payrolls for the year 1940 may pay the State tax by midnight of November 18, 1941, and still get credit for 90 per cent of what they would have received from the Federal Government, Chairman A. L. Fletcher, of the State Commission, has been advised by the Social Security Board. This easing of penalty for not paying the State tax on time became effective when President Roosevelt signed the Revenue Act of 1941 on September 20th. Chairman Fletcher explains that if a liable North Carolina employer owes and has not paid the original total tax on his payroll for the year 1940, say, for example, of $5,000 ($4,500 to the State and $500 to the Federal Government) he may still pay the State its $4,500, plus interest, and the Federal Government will give him credit for 90 per cent of 90 per cent of the payment, or 81 per cent of the payment to the State. That is, the employer would pay the Federal government $500 plus $450, or $1,050, and not the full $5,000, as formerly required, if he pays the State its $4,500 due on his 1940 payroll. Also, if the liable employer has already paid the penalty amount to the Federal Government on his payroll for 1940 and has paid the State amount, or pays it before the November 18, 1941, deadline, then he may ask for a refund from the Federal Government; the claim for refund to be made before March 20, 1942. Concessions are also granted to employers in reductions or refunds on taxes for the years 1936, 1937, and 1938 by the Federal Government, if the State taxes are paid by midnight of November 18th, and also for employers whose businesses were or are in the custody or control of the courts.

Chairman Fletcher urges all liable employers who have not paid the State Commission the full amount due for any of the years from 1936 through 1940 to do so at once, so they can take full advantage of the concessions granted by Congress. He does not want any N. C. employer to have to pay the heavy penalty, if it can be avoided. Also, Chairman Fletcher warns, on information from Washington, that there will probably be no further extension of time next year.
