

Happenings In The Oak City Schools

Three new clubs were organized last week. These were the Spelling Club, the Health Club and the Poultry Club. The officers of the Spelling Club are: Cleo Piland, president; Rufus Manning, vice president; Mrs. Helen C. Andrews, secretary-treasurer. The club is sponsored by Miss McLamb.

The following were elected as officers of the Health Club, which is sponsored by Miss Whitehead: Margaret Weaver, president; Clayton Purvis, secretary-treasurer; Frances Moore, program chairman. The Poultry Club, sponsored by Mr. Hassell, elected for their officers: David Boyd, president; Carl Atkinson, vice president; Jane Poole, secretary, and James Lawrence, secretary-treasurer.

We have had some especially interesting chapel programs this year. The teachers have charge of these programs and use their classes to prepare programs that relate to their studies. At the last chapel program, Mr. Hassell, who was program leader, introduced Mr. Swain, the supervisor of the F.H.A. organization in the county. Mr. Swain made a very interesting talk on the work this organization is doing in this county.

Mrs. Amanda Rawls, a respected citizen of this community, died on Thursday. School was run on a short schedule Friday so that all could attend the funeral. The funeral was conducted by Mr. Cowan, of Bear Grass, who was assisted by Mr. Grimes, of Hamilton.

Plans for the school band are going ahead rapidly. Mr. S. A. Braxter, of Raleigh, will be here this week to help organize it.

Miss McLamb and her commercial students have charge of today's chapel program. A one-act play "Altering at the Altar" will be given.

Thirty-five boys and girls from the Home Economics and Agriculture Departments will leave Thursday for the State Fair on a Rick's special bus.

THE RECORD SPEAKS . . .

The automobile accident record in this county last week-end was something terrible to write home about. Two lives were snuffed out in the twink of an eye, and those of at least two others were threatened when man-made machines plunged through the night at fast speeds. Although the year is just a little over three-fourths spent, the death toll already equals that for all of 1940, and the property damage is almost two and one-half times greater than it was up until the corresponding period, a year ago.

Those of us who would value human life so much when the country calls in the name of defense, would do well to place some value on human life when it is exposed on the highways.

The following tabulations offer a comparison of the accident trend: first, by corresponding weeks in this year and last and for each year to the present time.

41st Week Comparison
Accidents	Inj'd	Killed	Dam'ge
1941	3	2	$ 1,000
1940	2	1	0 50
Comparison To Date
1941	74	47	$20,030
1940	72	44	3 8,655
