HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

By Irene James, Home Service Director, Virginia Electric and Power Company

CRANBERRY TIME
Turkey and cranberry sauce — these provide the traditional main dish in the American Thanksgiving dinner. But, since our precedents in connection with that great day have been changed lately, why don't you make a few changes in that menu to keep in step with the times?

Cranberries are one fruit which are seldom used for any other purpose than as sauce or jelly, and yet they are one of our most versatile fruits. They can add color to your meals, for what is more cheerful than a dash of red — provided by cranberries? And if your meals lack pep, the tart flavor of cranberries can add that zip or tang they need. In addition to these contributions, they are valuable sources of Vitamins A and C and essential minerals, which is an important consideration from the nutritional standpoint.

Cranberry-Apple Relish
4 cups cranberries
2 apples, pared and cored
2 oranges
1 lemon
1-2 cups sugar
Put cranberries and apples through food chopper. Quarter whole oranges and lemon, remove seeds and put through chopper. Add sugar and blend. Chill in refrigerator a few hours before serving. Makes 1-2 quarts relish. This sauce will keep well in the refrigerator for several weeks.

Cranberry Fruit Sauce
2 cups sugar
1 cup water
4 cups cranberries
2 peeled apples, sliced thin
1-2 inch stick cinnamon
Grated rind 1 orange
Grated rind 1 lemon
Combine sugar and water, bring to boiling point and add remaining ingredients. Cook slowly, without stirring, until cranberry skins pop open and apple slices are clear—10-15 minutes. Cool sauce in cooking dish. Makes 1 quart sauce.

Tropical Relish
4 cups cranberries
1 lemon
1 cup canned shredded pineapple
2 cups sugar
Put cranberries through food chopper. Quarter whole lemon, remove seeds and put through chopper. Add pineapple and blend with sugar. Chill in refrigerator a few hours before serving. Makes 1 quart relish. This sauce too will keep well in the refrigerator for several weeks. These cranberry desserts are just as good as that usual mince or pumpkin pie. Give the family a surprise with one of them.

Crisscross Cranberry Pie
2 cups sugar
1 tsp flour
1-4 tsp salt
1-3 cup water
4 cups cranberries
Grated rind 1-2 lemon
2 tsp butter
Pie pastry
Mix dry ingredients together; add water and heat until sugar is melted. Add cranberries; cook slowly until all the skins pop open. Add lemon rind and butter. Cool, but do not stir. Pour into pastry lined 9-inch pie plate. Cover with crisscross pastry strips; brush top with milk. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 30 minutes.

Speed Cranberry Ice Cream
2 cups cranberries
1-2 cup water
1 cup sugar
1-8 tsp cinnamon
Few grains ground clove
1 cup cream, whipped
Cook cranberries in water until all skins pop open. Put through fine sieve and add sugar and spices. Heat to melt sugar only, then chill. Fold in whipped cream and transfer to dessert tray. Freeze in automatic refrigerator—about two hours. Pile in sherbert glasses and garnish with chopped pistachio nuts. Makes 1-2 pints.

Cranberry Shortcake
2 cups cranberries
2 cups chopped tart apple
1 cup canned pineapple tidbits
2 cups sugar
1-8 tsp salt
6 hot baking powder biscuits
1 cup cream, whipped
Chop cranberries, mix with apple, pineapple, sugar, and salt, let stand
