

Revamped Martin Quint Will Begin Season On Sunday

The current basketball season will get underway here next Sunday afternoon when the Williamston Martins will tangle with the strong Sanford Spinners in the high school gymnasium.

Members of the local semi-pro squad have been hard at practice during the past several weeks and reports state that the team will be as strong as in the past years.

Returning from last year's edition will be "Big Leaguer" Beaird, with his very capable shooting eye; Pap Diem, the bunch of dynamite who can do practically anything with a basketball; and Jack Manning, steady and dependable.

Among the newcomers to the squad are Oscar Bie, Hack Gaylord and possible one or two other local boys who have not been able to take part in the workouts.

The addition of Bie and Gaylord should improve the Martins' offense considerably and make them a great deal more potent on defense. Bie has had considerable experience in higher professional circles, and although he is no longer a youngster he can travel along with the best.

Hack Gaylord, who played with the Windsor Rebels last season, continues to be a dangerous player both at hitting the hoop and "hounding his man."

Irving Margolis and George Sfetos are in charge of the Martins and they have reported an exceptionally fine schedule in the making for local court enthusiasts, which includes the House of David, the famous Red Heads who rank as the nation's top girls' team, the Pocomoke Clowns, and a number of semi-pro teams in this State.

Things To Watch For In The Future

Auto horns using the "V for Victory" code, like the opening of the Beethoven Fifth symphony—dud dud daa!... White turkeys for Christmas dinner... Nylon football suits—Notre Dame, which first used "airplane cloth" grid pants, wore nylon ones in its Army and Navy games... Plastic splints for setting broken wrists, etc... A tail-light signal which shows speed-up as well as slow-down of a car or truck... "Soup-proof" neckties made of 25 per cent silk and 75 per cent fiber-glass wool...

Local Happenings In The Enterprise Forty Years Ago

NOVEMBER 22, 1901.

Note the card of Dr. John D. Biggs. Read the special ad of Eli Gurganus this week.

Turner's North Carolina Almanac for 1902 for sale at this office, 10c.

Thanksgiving Day next Thursday. All the stores will be closed that day.

It is understood that there is to be a steam plant in connection with the market.

Messrs. Keith and Godwin sold the "Salsbury Farm" this week to Messrs. Hadley and Wilson for $5500.

It is being talked very seriously that electric lights will soon shine upon the streets of Williamston.

The fourth quarterly conference of the M.E. church will be held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the parsonage.

The "Biggs" property on the corner of Main and Smithwick streets, was sold to Joseph G. Godard this week for $1,000.

There will be services at the Episcopal Church, at the usual hour, on the evening of Thanksgiving the 28th inst. by the Rev. Mr. Wingate.

The ladies of the Methodist Church will give an oyster supper and measuring party tonight at the Masonic Hall. Everybody go.

The Rev. Dr. Underwood, presiding elder of this district, will preach at the Methodist Church on Sunday morning and evening and will hold the fourth quarterly conference, Monday at 11 a. m.

The meetings of "The Daughters of the King" will be held at the residence of Mrs. W. G. Lamb on Thursday, the 28th inst., Thanksgiving Day at 4:30 p. m. All desiring membership are invited to attend.

Last Friday night the directors and the building committee of the Martin County Tobacco Warehouse Company held a meeting and decided to build two warehouses 80x180 feet and one prize house 40x80. The directors also levied another assessment of 10 per cent on the capital stock, to be paid by December 1st.

Mr. S. W. Harrell has been appointed chief of police to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. W. T. Ward. Chief Harrell is quite busy, having the old board walks in front of the stores torn up. There will be several sheds missing next week. If all the sheds were torn down it would improve the looks of the town a great deal.

There was some little excitement Wednesday at noon when the horse belonging to Mr. J. M. Sitterson, our esteemed postmaster, ran away with a cart, without wheels, hitched to her. The horse became frightened when she went around the rear of N. S. Peel and Co. store. In turning, the wheels were thrown off and the horse made for the stable in the rear of the post office. Fortunately the colored boy who was driving was not hurt. The cart was slightly damaged.

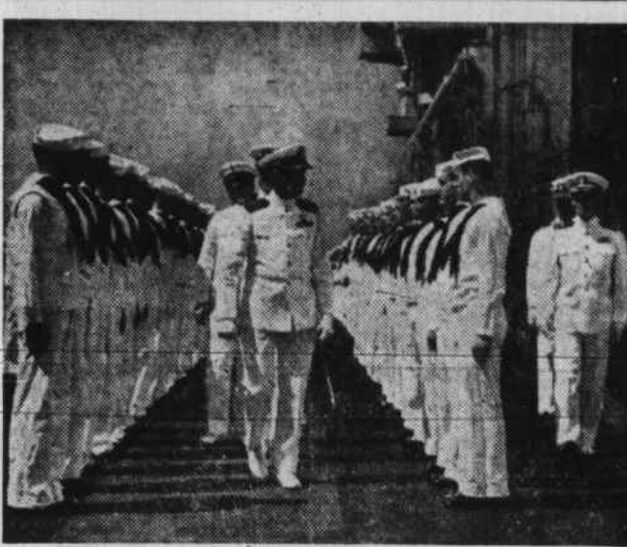

Dr. Staten, of Hamilton, was in town yesterday.

CAPTAIN'S INSPECTION ON BOARD ONE OF THE U. S. NAVY'S "COVERED WAGONS"

Members of the crew of the aircraft carrier U. S. S. SARATOGA are pictured as they line up for Captain's inspection. Aircraft carriers in the U. S. Navy are called "covered wagons" because their miniature half-acre airfields serve as the top-side decks for their hangars beneath and form the largest covered decks of any type ship in the Navy.

At the present time the U. S. Navy has six carriers in operation from any one of whose decks as many as seventy-four planes can be launched in eighteen minutes and can be landed in slightly more than twice this time. In spite of their great height and length, these carriers are officially credited with designed speeds of from 29 to 34 knots, which is nearly that of the destroyers.

With new Navy ships of all descriptions being launched at the rate of at least one every ten days, the Navy and Naval Reserve need men and offer opportunities for any qualified young man to receive free specialized training worth hundreds of dollars while receiving excellent pay from the first day of enlistment.
