Too Much MERCHANDISE in Stock

Despite the gradual increase in prices on all merchandise, we find it necessary to conduct this sale to clear out many of the items on which we are overstocked. No, we are not giving anything away but this one thing we do promise: We'll save you many hard-earned dollars if you'll buy your winter clothing and merchandise during this sale. We also have thousands of the very finest gifts for Christmas. They are appropriate and useful, too. Do your Christmas shopping early and come to Darden's for the best values in town.
