

Less Than A Dozen Operators Applied For Gasoline Books

ed to call or write to the county rationing board, Williamston, N. C., for an "Application for Transport Mileage Ration" form. The application is very easy to prepare, and once it is prepared it should be returned either in person or by mail to the board.

In preparing the application, the applicant has to write his name, address, state of registration and vehicle license number, number of certificate of war necessity and rationing period which is December 1, 1942. He then skips to the left-hand corner of the page and lists the gallons of gasoline needed for certain periods. These allotments, determined by the Detroit office of Defense Transportation, are already given and are to be copied on the applications by quarters. The amount of gas to be allotted from November 22 (or date of application, if later) to December 31, 1942, appears on the war certificate in parenthesis, and the others follow as designated. Truck operators will not be required to fill in the next column which has to do with mounted vehicles. In the next column (d) he will state how much he will buy at gasoline stations. If all he will say all. In the next column (e) he will state how much if any he will buy in bulk. If a truck operator wants only one ration book, he will so designate in the next column (f) or if he wishes to have his allotment divided into two or more books, he will so state in the column. He then turns the application over and signs his name, giving his address about the middle of the page.

the day light hours, the streets are to be cleared and all traffic either in the day or night is to stop. Only that traffic operating under special permission will be allowed to continue during the blackout or daylight alert.

It is likely that nothing more will be said about the alert until the warning is sounded, so the people in this community are urged to act in accordance with instructions and set promptly when the alarm is sounded. In Williamston, five blasts of the fire siren call for action. One long blast of the siren signals the all-clear.

themselves, Receiver Grimes giving a minute and detailed story of the case. Judge Dixon would turn first to one and then to the other, Raleigh Perkins taking it all in after a silent fashion. The order was continued until December 15 and the receiver was denied any increase in his fee. In issuing the order of continuance, Judge Dixon warned against any violence, and expressed the hope that the remainder of the crop could be housed without difficulty or trouble.

Proceedings in the court: In the case of Standard Fertilizer Company against J. F. Hopkins, a judgment favoring the plaintiff was given in the sum of $55 with interest from June 28, 1941.

Finally getting around to the Rogers will case Wednesday morning, the court spent a greater part of the day hearing the evidence offered by eleven witnesses, five for the caveators and six for the propounders. Taking the case late in the afternoon, the jury deliberated about thirty minutes and announced a verdict sustaining the will prepared by Mrs. Minnie V. Rogers.

The court ordered a recess until next Monday when the trial of civil cases will be resumed.

Mrs. John L. Croom Dies At Gold Point

Mrs. John L. Croom, highly esteemed county citizen, died at her home in Gold Point early yesterday morning following a long illness. She had been confined to her bed for several months.

The daughter of the late Joseph and Minnie Best Guilford, Mrs. Croom was born in Beaufort County 82 years ago. She had just observed her birthday two days before her death. Marrying Mr. Croom 52 years ago she moved to this county to make her home and take an active part in the religious and community affairs in her adopted home. She was a charter member of the Robersonville Christian Church, and was active in its work as long as her health permitted and loyal to its teachings until the end.

Besides her husband she leaves one son, Mr. L. A. Croom. Funeral services are being conducted at the home this afternoon at 3 o'clock by her pastor, Rev. J. M. Perry. Interment will follow in the family plot in the Robersonville cemetery on South Main Street.

Health Department Employs Sanitarian

Recently employed by the Martin County Health Department as sanitarian, Mr. Garland Coltrain is entering upon his new duties this week after a month's training under State inspectors at Wilmington. During the first few days he will be assisted in his work in the county by Chas. A. Leonard, former sanitarian in this county but who is now connected with the health department in Bertie and Chowan Counties.

Commenting on the new appointment, Health Officer John Williams said:

"The work is new to Mr. Coltrain but he has had adequate training under good men from the State Board of Health with work in the defense areas where they insist that all laws made for the protection of the public be carried out to the letter. With such training he may seem strict to some of the food handling proprietors who are not careful with the U. S. Public Health Service, the State and County Board of Health insisting that such law be enforced it is going to be a case of clean up or close up with many of our places. It is just as important that every place which handles food for public consumption be as clean as those places which sell drinks or food to our soldiers.

"We feel sure that the new inspector will find our proprietors cooperative and will do all in their power to make his work pleasant."

Succeeds Hinton In Revenue Post Here

Mr. J. Roy Overby, formerly of Norlina but for some months stationed in New Bern, is succeeding Mr. Jack L. Hinton as deputy collector for the State Department of Revenue in this district. Mr. Overby is entering upon his new duties here today. He plans to move his family here later.

Mr. Hinton, the collector who has made many friends here and in the district during the past three years, is being transferred to Henderson by the department. "I would have vigorously objected to the transfer, if that would have done any good, had it not been that I'll be nearer home," Mr. Hinton said this morning as he made ready to go into the next territory.

Stamp Sales Here Reach High Figure For Third Quarter

third quarter possibly hit the lowest point in ten years, the amount of business dropping from $51,952.65 in July, August and September of last year to $46,384.94. And the decrease came during a month when income stood close to a record peak.

While the amount of money sent away through the local office reflected a decrease, money orders cashed by the local office showed a fairly sizable increase. In the third quarter of last year the office here cashed money orders in the sum of $8,174.52. Last quarter the amount was more than doubled, standing at $19,876.94. A large portion of that amount was sent back home by service men to their families. Some of it is being placed in savings accounts, some in bonds and some to help meet the family budget needs. Possibly a greater portion of the total is being sent home for safe keeping by workers who left the community to work in war industries.
