RECENT BRIDE COMPLIMENTED
On Saturday evening, Mrs. Gordon Bailey and Miss Anna Louise Taylor gave a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. George W. Taylor, Jr., recent bride, in the home of Mrs. Bailey in Everetts.

Several contests and bingo were enjoyed during the evening. Refreshments consisted of lime jello, whipped cream, and cake. The color motif of green and white was used both in the refreshments and the games.

After being served, Mrs. Taylor was summoned by a mock telegram to cut the wedding cake in the dining room. The three-tiered cake was made of green and white ruffles and on the top were a miniature bride and groom.

About fifty guests were present.

SHOWER AND PARTY HONOR RECENT BRIDE

On last Friday evening, Mrs. Elmo B. James of Everetts and Mrs. Herman Bowen entertained in the home of Mrs. Bowen in Williamston with a bridge party and a surprise miscellaneous shower, honoring Mrs. Geo. W. Taylor, Jr., the former Miss Thelma Peel of Everetts. Guests were greeted at the door by the hostesses and invited into the dining room where punch was served by Mrs. D. C. Peel and Mrs. J. W. Peel. The dining room table was covered in a lace cloth and entwined with ivy. On one end of the table was the punch bowl on a mirror plaque and on the other end was a miniature bride and bridegroom, while in the center was a silver bowl filled with feverfew and fern.

Mrs. Taylor was then presented a white wagon filled with lovely gifts and was given crystal in her pattern by the two hostesses.

Guests were then invited into the living room where flowered place cards marked their places for bridge. A corsage of carnations and feverfew was presented Mrs. Taylor.

After four progressions, Mrs. Jimmy Harris was presented a nest of ashtrays for high score; Mrs. J. D. Woolard, "hijacs" for second high; Mrs. Walter Bailey, a vase for taking a trick with the deuce of clubs.

The hostesses served refreshments of delicious homemade banana ice cream and cup cakes iced in white with pink flower decorations. A cellophane bag of rice was on each plate.

Guests were, Mrs. Taylor, Misses Grace Clark, Florine Clark, Edna Barnhill, Anna Louise Taylor, and Mesdames J. D. Page, Bill Glover, J. D. Woolard, G. H. Harrison, C. B. Clark, D. C. Peel, J. W. Peel, R. V. Bunting, J. W. Bailey, W. T. Ross, Ralph Taylor, V. G. Taylor, C. I. Harris, J. L. Harris and H. M. Ayers.

ENTERTAIN FOR RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Charlie Hardis and Miss Edna Barnhill were joint hostesses Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. V. G. Taylor in Everetts, complimenting Mrs. George W. Taylor, Jr., a recent bride.

Guests were greeted by the hostesses and presented corsages of white chrysanthemums and fern. Mrs. Taylor's corsage was of carnations.

The house was attractively decorated with mixed fall flowers of pink and white, and a pink and white candy buffet.

Five tables of bride—Mrs. J. D. Woolard, high scorer, was awarded a satin covered jewelry box. Mrs. Taylor, the honoree, received a shoe bag for second high.

After four progressions, by candle light the guests were served green and white black ice cream and bridal cup cakes. Favors were white mints
