Time For Victory Gardens

After American youth have suffered and died to advance the war, it would seem that civilians would sacrifice and work without grumbling to help make the peace secure.

Now the big question for the home front to answer is: Are we going to sit back and rest on our oars and gobble up food without trying to help relieve the situation?

Martin County boys, stationed in the liberated areas, have written and told how little children called at the camp kitchens for garbage, reportedly for the pigs but actually for their own hungry mouths.

our military youth have fought for, suffered for, and died for.

It's time for victory gardening and on a big scale. It is not only the patriotic thing to do, but also the humane and logical thing to do.

Swindler Hopes To Rob Heroes

Labor. According to the Associated Press, "the swindler has a new gleam in his eye." Who do you imagine he's after this time? The A.P. replies:

"He's busy setting booby traps for returning service men. He's after their families, too.

"Whether the money is muster-out pay, traveling expenses, prisoner-of-war accumulated savings or the sole hoarding of the old folks, the racketeer is aware of this:

"There is some $130 billion of savings in this country—much in veterans' names—that could be spent after the war."

The A.P. proceeds to list many of the schemes which the swindlers hope to put over and quotes Brigadier General Frank T. Hines as warning the service men about placing their trust in individuals they do not know.

But the swindlers will continue to operate and they will get away with a large part of that $130 billion "nest egg" unless the authorities do something more than "issue warnings."

Good Logic

Johnston County's representative in the State Legislature spilled some good logic, and incidentally spilled it in a good place, a short time ago when he rose to the floor and said:

"Since the legislature hasn't found money to pay the teachers a decent and living salary, I can't see how the legislature can consistently create three additional high-salaried jobs for unnecessary purposes and leave the teachers hanging on a limb."

Rationing

Rationing, despite the black market and cheating, will have been successful if it just opens our eyes to the fact that others beside ourselves must live.

You cannot teach a child to take care of himself unless you will let him try to take care of himself. He will make mistakes, and out of these mistakes will come his wisdom.—H. W. Beecher.

Children need models more than they need critics.—Joseph Joubert.

SMOKEY SAYS— Care will prevent 9 out of 10 forest fires!

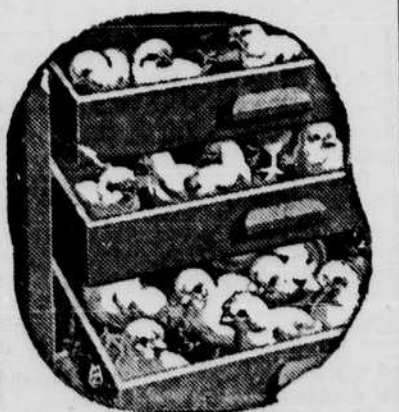

FOREST FIRES ANOTHER ENEMY TO CONQUER

Every year America's forests and woodlands suffer an average of 210,000 fires. That's 575 a day... 575 while you slept last night! Every year fires burn over 31,000,000 acres—more than in Yosemite National Park or the state of New York. Every year fires kill billions of little trees—tomorrow's timber—and enough big trees to build 215,000 five-room homes! Every year vital watersheds are crippled, hundreds of thousands of man-days of labor wasted, nature's beauty scarred. Startling facts—but no more startling than this: Of these forest fires, 90% are caused by honest, patriotic American citizens, like you! One word—carelessness—explains the wholesale razing of America. It's time—NOW—to put an end to this crying shame. You and your friends can help! Please read the rules on this page... read them again... memorize them... tell others about them. Then be careful in all forest and woodland areas. Do your part to help prevent fires!

- MEMORIZE THESE RULES 1. Crush out your cigarette, your cigar, your pipe ashes. 2. Break your match in two. When you can hold the burned end between your fingers—play safe, use the ash tray. 3. Drown your campfire; then stir and drown it again. 4. If you must use fire: First, ask if the law requires a permit. Next, have help handy. Last, kill every spark!
