BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Mrs. Frank Carstarphen and Miss Thelma Lilley, of Greenville, were joint hostesses at a dessert-bridge party honoring their sister, Miss Evelyn Lilley, who engagement was recently announced. The individual tables were covered with white and lighted candles in silver candleholders, entwined with ivy. The living room was beautifully decorated with red roses and white lilies.

Miss Lilley will be married on May 30th, 1945. A delicious sweet course, consisting of pink and green bridal cakes, peanuts and ice cream were served to the guests. Attractive nosegays were on each plate.

The hostesses presented the bride-elect with china in her chosen pattern.

The bride-elect was dressed in a summer black crepe dress and her corsage was of pink roses.

Miss Mamie Clyde Taylor received the high score prize for bride, while Mrs. J. B. Barnhill, Jr., was low score winner.

Little Misses Jane Gray Biggs and Betty Fagan Carstarphen presented the guests with the tallies.

The following guests were present: Misses Mamie Clyde Taylor, Bolton Cowen, Mary Elizabeth Keel, Ruth Ward, Marjorie Lindsley, Martha Leggett, Katherine Mewhert, Doris Rogers, Mary Rodgers, Dorothy Manning, and Mesdames Daisy Pope, J.
