

Farm Life Class Names Officers

The Farm Life Seniors after recovering from the effects of their trip to Washington, D. C., have elected their officers. They are: Susie Manning, president; Justus Tice, vice-president; Thelma Manning, secretary; Lessie Manning, treasurer. Recently they selected their flower, the rose. Their decision was to use the rainbow colors as class colors. The motto, corresponding with their invitation cards, is "We have crossed the bay, the ocean lies before us."

They were sponsors of the king and queen contest whose winners were announced at the Halloween carnival.

Invitations, calling cards, caps and gowns have been ordered.

The calling cards and memory books have been received. They are also hoping to publish an annual by the end of the term. All of them are now members of the High School Book League which increases the reading of more good literature.

They decided that Mrs. Lewis Roberson, Mrs. Eugene Roberson, Mrs. N. T. Tice, and Mrs. Cletie Griffin, will be our grandmothers because they are sending their last child to school to graduate in 1947.

Home From Germany
Sgt. Cecil B. Whitehurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Whitehurst, RFD 2, Williamston, recently returned home after a stay of ten months in Germany. While overseas he was promoted from private first class to sergeant. He is expecting his discharge shortly.
