

Homecoming At A. C. College

Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, will hold a homecoming program there Saturday afternoon of this week at 2:30 o'clock. It was announced by Russell T. Roebuck, alumni secretary in Martin County.

The program will officially open at 2:30 p. m. in Howard Chapel and will be concluded with the annual A. C. C.-E. C. T.

C. football game at 8:00 p. m. in Wilson's Municipal Stadium. Many former A. C. C. athletes will be present to see the game that puts at stake again the famed "Bohunkus," an old wooden trophy which has created rivalry among the two schools for over a decade. Many pre-war traditions are being revived for this pre-time homecoming. Sorority-Fraternity Teas, open house in the dormitories, and the Alumni Dinner are some of the features included in the day's program.

Miss Sarah Bain Ward of Kingston, N. C., President of the Alumni Association, states that she is anticipating the largest and most enthusiastic alumni gathering ever held on the campus of the institution.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Will Partin announce the birth of a daughter, Deborah, in a Tarboro hospital on November 1. Mrs. Partin and daughter are expected home on November 15th.

FROM A BIBLE

In Java there are examples of churches having come into being by the influence of Bible reading only.

1,000 TONGUES

Since the year 1890, the Scriptures have found their way in printed form into 997 languages that before that date did not possess them. Among these are most of the tongues used by the vast populations of the Orient and Africa, and many of those spoken by the millions of Indians living in Central and South America.
