The National Foundation is asking the nation to raise $24,000,000 this year in the March of Dimes to carry on vital research and offer treatment of victims.

Last year the Foundation raised less than sixteen million dollars and the year's polio epidemic launched locally the early part of last month, swept on unabated last week-end when six more places were entered to boost the total to fifteen since December 9. No statement has been made by local police who, reports state, have not been able to establish a single lead in the first case.

Blind Man To Get Home From Lions

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the local Lions Club last Thursday evening, the members present went on record as Thompson, local blind colored person. Faced with the housing shortage and increased rent, Thompson appealed to the club for their assistance. The club plans to secure one of the former P. O. W. cabins and build to it. It was announced that Lion W. Clyde Manning had been appointed to serve as Martin County Scout executive. Lion Manning succeeds Wheeler Martin in this capacity, the latter being relieved of this position due to his health. Lion Manning reported on his recent trip to Wilson where he attended a meeting of East Carolina Council of Boy Scouts. It was reported that the local Scout Counon scouting work in this district this year.

A report of the chewing gum sales committee was made by Lion Homer Barnhill, Chairman. Lion Clyde Griffin reported that the club's Christmas Cheer Program committee spent $173.08 in providing 49 baskets for the poor and indigent blind cases in this community at Christmas. Lion Mobley reported that the club sent two hundred pound bags of Raleigh as a Christmas present. The meeting was called to order by Vice President Julian Harrell, since President Mobley fail-Gaylord, Jr., pronounced the invocation. Guests present were W. I. Harrison, W. H. Abernathy, W. W.
