Belk-Tyler Ties Woolard For the First Place Spot

By Wilbur L. Jackson

Belk-Tyler tied Woolard Wednesday afternoon for first place by turning back the league leaders 5 to 4 in a closely played contest.

Belk jumped into a 1-0 lead in the next two frames. The winners then came back with a 2-run rally in the 4th and then added 2 more in the 6th to put the game on ice.

Ernest Mears hurled for the winners allowing 7 hits. John Miller was on the mound for the losers.

CUTE IN COTTON

Cute in cotton is the word for pretty Paulette Goddard, Paramount star, who wears one of her 1947 cotton favorites. The low cut square neckline and the short, pushed-up sleeves add interest to the design which is done in soft blue cotton crash.

The food and clothing just received by this family in a bombed-out area of Europe, came from America, the gift of American Church people. In addition to material aid, clothing, medical supplies, vitamins, the Episcopal Church is raising through its Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, a million dollars a year for three years, as the contribution of Episcopal Church members to the pressing needs of people in Europe and Asia.

Abandoned Baby

CHARGED with abandoning her two-year-old daughter, Joyce Ann, on a New York doorstep, "so she could get a good home," Mrs. Sarah Clark Lynch, 19, is escorted into the Somerville, Mass., court by Detective John H. O'Brien. Estranged from her soldier husband, Sgt. Edward J. Lynch, the girl, formerly of Littleton, N. C., was ordered held for extradition. (International)

Poppies Go On Sale Saturday

"Honor the war dead and aid the war's living victims," will be the theme of the annual observance of Poppy Day here tomorrow. Every person in Martin County will be asked to wear a memorial poppy tomorrow and to make a contribution for the welfare of the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead.

Preparations for Poppy Day were being completed today by a large committee of American Legion Auxiliary women, headed by Mrs. W. O. Griffin, Poppy Chairman. Volunteer workers from the Auxiliary and cooperating groups will be on the streets at an early hour tomorrow distributing the poppies and receiving the contributions.

"Although the second World War is slipping rapidly into the past, we believe that the memory of the young men who gave their lives in that conflict is still fresh in the minds and hearts of all of us," said Mrs. Griffin. "The dead of the first World War have been gone for 29 years, yet we remember their service and sacrifice. The poppies which we will put on tomorrow will show that we have not forgotten and are grateful for their defense of our country."

"We must not forget, either, those who live in suffering and hardship because of war wounds and illness, the disabled veterans, or their children and the children of those who have died. The contributions we make for the poppies go for their welfare, for help which can come to them only through this means."

The poppies to be distributed here have been made by disabled veterans at Fayetteville Hospital. Auxiliary workers will all be un-

High construction prices, which have curbed the volume of home building in recent months, are also limiting industrial expansion. . . . A new government order enables automobile makers to use nearly three times as much natural rubber in passenger tires as formerly. . . . Land values have not come down any in the middle-west farm belt. Most of the deals are between individual farmers and turnover is unusually active. . . . Some airmen think passengers are cuddled too much. They propose instead: no free meals, less fuss, lower fares. . . . Price cuts have begun to appear in lumber. Americans did not forget during the war how to buy on the installment plan. Installment credit fell sharply during the war but now is rising again, sharply, as the supply of such semidurable goods as automobiles, refrigerators and other appliances increases. The new installment credit is rising.
