

Music Memory Contest Awards Are Announced

The piano ensemble recital presented by Mrs. W. K. Parker's piano pupils last Thursday evening in the Williamston High School auditorium was largely attended and enjoyed. The program was most colorful and entertaining and the performance of each player was unusually good in precision and tonal quality.

The memory contest awards were won by Lilybet Muse, Sarah Manning and Wilber Stewart. The scholarship and perfect attendance awards were won by Judith Ayers, Frankie and Sarah Everett, Sybil Godard, Elizabeth, Jean and Marie Griffin, Anne Gresham, Barbara Gurganus, Jackie Harris, Betsy Horton, Martha Dunn Kimball, Mary Carolyn Leggett, Janice, Joyce, Leda Faye, Mary Anne and Sarah Manning, Betty and Jean Mobley, Lilybet Muse, Jane, Marie and Rhoda Faye Peele, Sallie Roberson, Wilber Stewart, Patricia Taylor and Harriett Ward.

As the City Fathers are declaring so many things a nuisance, we do not see why they cannot touch the habit of spitting on the pavement. Before the walks were paved it was not so noticeable or seemingly so prevalent. Now the pavements are filthy, unhealthy and obnoxious, especially to ladies, who must either drag their skirts through or pick their way. The Sanitary Board should demand that the pavements be cleaned at regular intervals during the day, if the filthy practice cannot be prohibited.

Mrs. Chloe Lanier was "at home" to a number of young people on Tuesday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Janie Wood, of Baltimore. Mrs. Lanier is a delightful hostess and the evenings spent with her are always pleasantly remembered.

TERRIBLE!

Teamed on the screen for the first time, Maureen O'Hara and Cornel Wilde are starred in Twentieth Century-Fox's newest Technicolor hit, "The Homestretch," which opens Sunday at the Waits Theatre. In the romance drama of the turf, Wilde is seen as the carefree spendthrift whose one burning ambition is to own a string of horses that will win the world's top racing classics. Miss O'Hara is seen as the quiet and reserved girl who is drawn into the tumultuous world of race tracks by her love for Wilde.

County Farmer Enters Big Bass Contest Here

Frank Bailey of RFD No. 1 is the first to officially enter the Big Bass Contest sponsored by the Western Auto Store, his catch, a black bass weighing 7 pounds and 1 ounce. The fish caught in the Perquimans River Tuesday measures 25 1-4 inches from the lower tip of the tail to the extreme tip under jaw and, around the body at the widest point, the girth measured 16 3-4 inches.

The contest which started May 15 will close September 30. Prizes totaling $11,266.50 in value are to be awarded. Entries must be made and verified and turned in to the Western Auto Store within 15 days after the catch.

Complete details are found on the official entry blanks available at W. J. Miller's Western Auto Store.
